You, the Institution listed above, agree that you and your Authorized Users are bound as follows:

- License Grant. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, ProQuest LLC ("ProQuest") hereby grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to access and use the products listed on your approved Order Form, invoice or purchase order (the "Products") at your principal location (and those on any Additional Sites/Member Libraries Schedule). Any remote access rights and/or limits on simultaneous users are specified on the Order Form. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, you do not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products or any associated software, systems, documentation or other materials. All such rights and interests remain in ProQuest and its licensors.
- Authorized Users. By "Authorized User" we mean only: (1) For public libraries: library staff, individual residents of your reasonably defined geographic area served and walk-in patrons while they are on-site; (2) For schools and other academic institutions: currently enrolled students, faculty, staff, visiting scholars and walk-in patrons while they are on-site; and (3) For other types of organizations: your employees, independent contractors and other temporary workers while they are performing duties within the scope of their employment or assignment.
- Remote Access. If your subscription allows you to provide remote access to a Product, you will strictly limit such access to Authorized Users through the use of passwords, IP addresses or other secure method of user verification. You will not share access with other institutions or third parties either directly or indirectly. You will immediately notify us if you believe your security has been compromised.
- No redistribution. ProQuest endorses the Interlibrary Loan and Scholarly Sharing provisions below. Beyond these uses, you may not redistribute any material retrieved from the Products nor allow any use that will infringe the copyright or other proprietary right of ProQuest or its licensors. You may not use the Products to create products or perform services which compete or interfere with those of ProQuest or its licensors.
- Permitted Uses. The Products may be used for your internal research or educational purposes, as follows:
 - Research and Analysis. You and your Authorized Users are permitted to display and use information contained in the Products for educational, scientific, or research purposes, including illustration, explanation, example, comment, criticism, teaching, research or analysis, provided that in doing so you or your Authorized Users do not violate an express provision of this Agreement.
 - Digital and Print copies. You and your Authorized Users may download or create printouts of a reasonable portion of the articles or other works contained in the Products so long as each work is retrieved directly from the on-line database system in a manner that causes a "hit" to be registered on the on-line system for each and every print or digital copy. All reproduction and distribution of such printouts, and all downloading and electronic storage of materials retrieved through the Products shall be for your own internal or personal use as allowed under the doctrines of "fair use" and "fair dealing". Downloading of all or parts of a Product in a systematic or regular manner or so as to create a collection of materials comprising all or a material subset of a Product is strictly prohibited whether such collection is in electronic or print form.
 - Electronic Reserves. Articles or other works contained in a Product may be included in your electronic reserves systems so long as such use employs durable links to the Products so that a "hit" is registered on ProQuest's on-line platform each time a student views the work on reserve.
 - Fair Use/Fair Dealing. Nothing in this agreement restricts your use of the materials contained within the Products under the doctrines of "fair use" or "fair dealing" as defined under the laws of the United States or England, respectively.
 - Interlibrary Loan (ILL). Interlibrary Loan of materials retrieved from the Products is allowed provided that the loan is not done in a manner or magnitude that would replace the recipient library's own subscription to either the Products or the purchase of the underlying Work (e.g., newspaper, magazine or book), and that you comply with any special terms imposed by specific content providers or licensors as required under Section 6(c). With respect to our ProQuest® Dissertations & Theses product and other electronic archives such as Early English Books Online, Interlibrary Loan is restricted to one printed copy of the specifically requested dissertation, book or pamphlet loaned out at any one time.

- f. Scholarly Sharing. You and your Authorized Users may provide to a third party colleague minimal, insubstantial amounts of materials retrieved from the Products for personal use or scholarly, educational or scientific research use in hard copy or electronically, provided that in no case any such sharing is done in a manner or magnitude as to act as a replacement for the recipient's or recipient institution's own subscription to either the Products or the purchase of the underlying Work.
- g. MARC Records. You may load ProQuest's MARC record Products into your Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) containing your library holdings provided such records are not loaded into a shared online catalog system such as WorldCat without ProQuest's prior written consent.
- h. Scholar/Researcher Profiles. The data contained within scholar profiles within our products are for use in facilitating research and collaboration amongst colleagues. Neither you nor your Authorized Users may export or otherwise exploit the scholar profiles for mass mailings or similar marketing purposes.

6. Supplemental Terms.

- a. Updates. ProQuest will announce any substantial additions, deletions or modifications of information, databases, materials, capabilities or services within the Products on its electronic mailing list service. These shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement at the time they are added to the Products, but shall not materially alter your use of the Products.
- b. Systems Usage. To protect the Products for the research and educational use of Authorized Users, automated searches against ProQuest's systems are not permitted with the exception of nonburdensome federated search services. Data mining is prohibited.
- c. Content Provider Supplemental Terms. Individual content licensors occasionally have conditions of use applicable solely to their content. Links to such content-specific conditions are clearly displayed with the associated content and will not materially alter your use of the Products. With respect to third-party databases delivered through the Illumina platform, any supplemental terms and conditions are clearly hypertext linked on each search screen.

7. Fees and Payments. You agree pay the fees for the Products as shown on the order form, attached invoice, or accepted purchase order within thirty (30) days of your receipt of ProQuest's invoice. Firm U.S. Government orders require a valid purchase order and advance payment or payment in accordance with FAR 52.213.2.

8. Term and Termination.

- a. Term. For subscription-based Products, the term of your rights and access shall continue from the Start Date until the Expiration Date as those are listed on the Order Form or an accepted purchase order for each such Product, plus any renewal term(s) agreed to. For CD-ROM and FTP databases, you are granted a perpetual license to the most current version purchased, subject to the continued application of Acceptable Use Provisions of this Agreement (Section 1-5, above). This Agreement shall continue in force for so long as you are within the term of at least one ProQuest Product.
- b. Termination for Breach. If a party breaches any material term of this Agreement and does not cure after 30 days written notice, the Agreement may immediately be terminated in whole or as to the affected Product. In the event the license granted under this agreement is terminated you shall disable all Products in your possession. This includes the destruction of any CD-ROMs, FTP databases or any software as well as any downloaded copies retrieved from the Products. In addition, ProQuest reserves the right to pursue any other legal remedy available to it.
- c. Remedial Action. Without limiting the above, ProQuest may suspend delivery of Product(s) to you if it reasonably determines that your failure to comply with the Acceptable Use Provisions may cause irreparable harm to it or its licensors under the specific circumstances. If delivery is suspended, ProQuest will work with you in good faith to restore your access as soon as possible.

9. Privacy. The Products do not require the entering or capture of personally identifiable user information. ProQuest makes no representation as to whether any federal, state or local laws may regulate your administration of Authorized Users' access to the Products or require you to obtain consent from any Authorized User (or, in the case of minors, the parent or guardian of such user).

This addendum, effective the date it is executed by ProQuest, applies only to those Products eligible for this option and for which you have paid the applicable fee, as reflected in the Order Form outlining your purchase of such Products (the "PAL Products").

1. Perpetual Archive License: Subject to the grant of license provisions of the Electronic Products License Agreement ("Agreement"), ProQuest hereby grants to you a non-exclusive, non-transferable, perpetual license to the PAL Products. As provided therein, your use of the PAL Products shall be limited to the non-commercial use of you and your Authorized Users. You may not sub-license, assign or transfer your rights or obligations under this Agreement. You may elect to access the PAL Products through ProQuest's proprietary on-line systems in exchange for the annual access fee as set forth below and/or you may elect to host the data using your own systems and user interface.

2. Restrictions on Downloading and Storage of the PAL Products (or portions thereof)
You may download one electronic copy of the PAL Products for storage on your internal systems provided that such download does not negatively impact other users of ProQuest's systems. All use of any locally stored copies of the PAL Products is subject to this Agreement. Notwithstanding Section 8(b) of the Electronic Products License Agreement Terms and Conditions, you or your Authorized Users may extract and/or compile data from your locally loaded copies of the PAL products, provide that all such activities shall be solely for the teaching, learning and research purposes of you and your Authorized Users. If a party breaches any material term of this Agreement and does not cure after 30 days written notice, the Agreement may immediately be terminated in whole or as to the affected Product. In the event the license granted under this agreement is terminated for your uncorrected material breach, you shall make reasonable efforts to disable all Products in your possession. This includes the destruction of any CD-ROMs, FTP databases or any software as well as any downloaded copies retrieved from the Products. In addition, ProQuest reserves the right to pursue any other legal remedy available to it. Notwithstanding the foregoing, you shall not be liable, and this Agreement shall not be subject to termination for, any unauthorized use or other action by individual users, as long as you did not intentionally assist in or encourage such unauthorized use or permit such unauthorized use to continue after having actual notice thereof. In the event of termination for ProQuest's uncorrected material breach, you shall receive a prorated refund of fees paid for the current term.

3. Fees and Payments
Solely for the purposes of your licensing of the PAL Products, the following provisions shall apply in place of Section 7 of the Electronic Products License Agreement:

You shall pay the fees for your license and access to the PAL Products as shown on the applicable Order Form, attached invoice, or accepted purchase order. The fees due for your license consist of the following components:

- a. One-time License fee. This fee represents a one-time payment for a perpetual license to the PAL Products pursuant to the terms and conditions outlined in the Electronic Products License Agreement as modified by this Addendum. This fee must be paid in full before the annual access can be terminated under Addendum paragraph 4(b).
- b. Annual fees. Continuing support of your on-line access to the PAL Products is paid for through an annual access fee as set forth on the Order Form, which is in addition to the one-time license fee. If your PAL Products are updated with additional content on an annual or other basis, a data fee for the additional content may be assessed as well. You will pay the annual data and/or access fees (referred to collectively as 'continuing service fees') when due.

4. Term and Termination
Solely in relation to this PAL Products, the following provisions shall apply in place of Section 8(a) of the Agreement:

- a. Term of License. You have a perpetual, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to the PAL Products. Your continuing on-line access into ProQuest's central host on-line system after the first year of this license will be maintained provided you pay the applicable access and data fees as invoiced annually by ProQuest.
- b. Termination of Annual Access and Data Updates. Should you terminate your continuing on-line access to the PAL Products by choosing not to pay the annual continuing service fees or if ProQuest ceases to make the PAL Products available through a central host on-line system or the equivalent, ProQuest will provide you with an electronic copy of the PAL Products data (images, ASCII text and meta-data as applicable) at that time in a format of ProQuest's choice. You will reimburse ProQuest for the cost of the electronic copy on a cost recovery basis.
