Online Subscription Terms and Conditions for Institutional Site License Subscribers

University of California San Diego

TRR Journal articles are published by the National Academy of Sciences, through its operating unit, the Transportation Research Board (“Publisher”) of the United States of America.

The following guidelines provide Institutional Site License Subscribers (“Subscriber”) with the terms and conditions governing rights and limitations for electronic access by Authorized Users to the online version of the TRR Journal (“TRR Journal Online”), distributed by Publisher. These terms and conditions, effective as of January 1, 2012, supersede any prior understanding between the Publisher and the Subscriber regarding user access to TRR Journal Online.

Access to TRR Journal Online is granted for all Authorized Users on the following conditions:

- Publisher’s acceptance of the Subscriber’s completed order, and
- Receipt of the required site license fee.

1. Authorized Site and Users

“Authorized Users” are authenticated, current full- and part-time students, employees (including faculty, staff, affiliated researchers, independent contractors, and walk-in users), and other individuals who have legal access to the Subscriber’s facilities and computer network. Remote access is allowable to Authorized Users only if they are authenticated through a secure network. Open proxies and other non-authenticated proxy servers are prohibited.

An “Institution” includes all parts of an organization that report to the same Chief Academic Officer or Chief Executive Officer. For multicampus academic institutions, each organization listed in the Directory of Higher Education (<http://www.educause.edu/Institutions/807>) is a separate Institution and requires its own site license. For the purposes of these terms and conditions, transportation research centers and university transportation centers are considered part of a university and part of an Institution only if they report to the same institutional Chief Academic Officer.

2. License: In consideration of the payment of the site license fee, the Subscriber and Publisher agree as follows:

- a. TRR Journal Online is subject to all applicable national and international copyright laws, database protections, and other rights of the Publisher and the authors of individual papers. Subscriber acknowledges that it has no claim to ownership by reason of its use or

c. Any use of articles or other content from TRR Journal Online in whole or in part shall include customary bibliographic citation. For permission to copy beyond that permitted by Section 107 or 108 of the U.S. Copyright Law and to reprint articles, contact Phyllis Barber, pbarber@nas.edu.

3. Scope of License: All use of content in TRR Journal Online is subject to applicable copyright law. Reproduction of TRR Journal Online or any portion thereof is authorized only as follows:

This grant extends only to the Subscriber and such Authorized Users individually, and may not be transferred or extended to others. All rights not expressly granted herein are reserved to the Publisher.

b. Moderate downloading, printing, or saving of material from TRR Journal Online for personal, scholarly, or educational, noncommercial use is permissible, only to the extent consistent with the "fair use" doctrine. These terms and conditions do not permit the downloading of entire volumes of TRR Journal Online. Extensive or systematic downloading, printing, or saving of articles by Authorized Users is not permitted. Recompiling, copying, reselling, redistributing, publishing, modifying, displaying, or republishing of any journal text, search results, or other information in TRR Journal Online, or any portion thereof, in any form or medium now or hereafter known may be done only with the written authorization of the Publisher.

f. Braille Transcription: The Subscriber may transcribe any portion of TRR Journal Online into Braille script or enlarged type for Authorized Users who are visually impaired.

g. Contributing Authors: Authors of articles published in TRR Journal Online who are Authorized Users of the Subscriber are authorized to use all or part of their work in compilations or other publications of the author's own works, and to make copies of all or part of the work for the author's use in lectures, classroom instruction, or similar uses. If the specific abuser(s) cannot be identified or stopped by the reasonable efforts of the institution, TRB has the right to withhold, suspend, or terminate access to TRR Journal Online without liability.

e. The Subscriber agrees not to remove, cover, overlay, obscure, block, or change any statements that TRB may post to its website to inform users about system features, terms of use, or copyright conditions.
