Dear Mr. Baca:

The California Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights is mandated to receive information concerning developments in civil rights in California. In connection with this responsibility, the Advisory Committee is authorized to hold informal open meetings at which public officials and private citizens are invited to present information on the progress and problems in their field of expertise.

The California Advisory Committee will hold a one-day open meeting to study the impact of President Carter's immigration proposals and enforcement of the immigration laws.

Time : 8:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Date : Monday, June 26, 1978

Place: Little America Westgate Hotel
Seville Room
1055 Second Avenue
San Diego, California

We are hereby extending an invitation to you to meet with the Advisory Committee on Monday, June 26, 1978 at approximately 10:00 a.m. to discuss your expertise with regard to immigration concerns.

Dear Mr. Baca:

On behalf of the California Advisory Committee I would like to express our appreciation to you for your participation at our immigration open meeting held in San Diego, June 26, 1978.

Information received from the open meeting will be forwarded to the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights office in Washington, D.C. as part of the Commission's national immigration project. When a report based on the Commission's national study of immigration is completed, we will forward a copy to you.

Again, thank you for your contribution to this project.

Sincerely,

Nadine I. Hata
Southern Vice Chairperson
California Advisory Committee

You may make a brief oral statement, submit a written statement and supporting documents, or merely respond to questions from the Advisory Committee.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation. Staff of the Commission's Los Angeles Office will be contacting you shortly regarding details of the meeting.
