Ensenada, B.C., Mexico. April 11, 1929.

Ed Fletcher, Esquire,
1020 Ninth Street,
San Diego, California.

Dear Mr. Fletcher:

Mr. Clyde M. Vandeburg, one of your representatives, came to Ensenada yesterday with the Sota family and presented your letter written to the Immigration Office at Tijuana.

It was a pleasure to be of service to your friends. Sorry they were all obliged to stay until too late to permit reaching the Tijuana border before closing time, but it could not have been prevented, even had they known in advance the various documents and other requirements which must be prepared and presented with an immigration visa. They were very nice people and seemed very grateful to you. Mr. Vandeburg was of great assistance and looked after his charges most efficiently.

Sincerely yours,

E. A. Wakefield

I hope some time that I can return the compliment in some way.

I had forgotten your initials so sent $5 through F. Sawday to you which you so kindly loaned Mr. Vandeburg and hope you received same.

I had dinner with Colonel Copley last night and he wanted to be remembered to you.

With kind personal regards,

AMERICAN CONSULAR SERVICE

Ensenada, B.C., Mexico. April 17, 1929.

Ed Fletcher, Esquire,
1020 Ninth Street,
San Diego, California.

Dear Mr. Fletcher:

Your very kind letter of April 13, has just been received and the $5 was handed me by Mr. Sawday.

It was a real pleasure to be of service, and no trouble in any way. Of course the fact that they were friends of yours did not exactly act as a handicap, not noticeably.

Please give my kindest regards to Colonel Copley, with best wishes for a complete recovery. I hope you and Colonel Copley are going to be active members of the La Grulla Gun Club. It is a fine sporting club, as well as a pleasant place for a little holiday with restful, agreeable surroundings.

Let me know whenever it is possible to be of service to you or your friends.

With kind regards,

E. A. Wakefield

AMERICAN CONSULAR SERVICE
Ensenada, Mexico, May 14, 1929.

Colonel Edward Fletcher,
1020 Ninth Street,
San Diego, California.

Dear Colonel Fletcher:

Mr. Sawday told me of your proposed visit to Ensenada on your way to the La Grulla Gun Club.

He merely spoke of it as likely to interest me, knowing that I met you and Colonel Copley when you were both in Ensenada on your way south. He also stated that Colonel Copley and Mr. Marston were accompanying you and that you expected to pass through Ensenada Thursday the 16th.

It would give me pleasure to have you gentlemen lunch with us while enroute through this picturesque little City.

It might be that a little rest would be agreeable and Mrs. Wakefield and I would be pleased to have you stop for luncheon and an hour's rest.

Naturally you will feel at perfect liberty to suit the conveniences of the party, rather than be guided by this note, should it be that other plans have been made or considered.

It will be a real pleasure to us only if it would really suit your conveniences and desires. If not too much trouble will you please telegraph me if you will be able to have luncheon with us about 1 o'clock Thursday.

With best wishes and kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

E. A. Wakefield
