Dear Col. My last payment is due Feb. 1st and would like to have you give me 6 months more if possible. I will pay you your interest just the same. I know I can sell my property better now and then. If I cannot do this I will have to borrow it and pay interest to who ever I get it from.

It's just a matter of convenience on my part.

Am mail you my check for my interest which is due you Feb. 1st. Hoping this will meet your approval.

Yours Respectfully

Fairbanks was just in the real estate game.

Enclosed find copy of letter I have just received from

We must cooperate with them on some equitable basis.

Friend Wilson:

Enclosed find letter from Larrick that is explanatory.

Don't let the thing run along. With winter coming on and water getting underneath the pavement it will ruin the whole thing. Someone will have to be held responsible for it.
