My dear Mr. Fletcher:

I have delayed answering your letter hoping it would be possible for me to comply with your request but as I have not known from day to day just when I should be returning east it has been impossible for me to give you an answer.

It is now definitely settled that I shall leave for the east this coming week so I am afraid it will be impossible for me to make the San Diego trip. I am so sorry for I should truly have liked to be of assistance in this most worth while project.

Hoping you will understand the circumstances and with kindest regards to you and Mrs. Fletcher, I am

Sincerely yours,

Mary Pickford
