Dear Ed:

It has been a long time since I have had as much enjoyment as I had from reading the excerpts from the Senate Journal which you sent to me on April 2nd. You are one hundred per cent correct in the stand that you take and you are to be congratulated upon your courage and leadership.

Sincerely yours,

C. R. Smith

Dear Ed:

Many thanks for your note.

The short visit with you recalls the pleasure of many we have had over the years, beginning with those of the earlier days in which you recounted the virtues of San Diego and insisted that American Airlines should resume its operation there. Certainly all that you predicted for San Diego has come true and you must take justifiable pride in all of the things which you have done to have people recognize the worth of your home city.

American Airlines is glad to be back in San Diego and we are grateful for all of the things you have done to make that possible. You are a good citizen.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Ed Fletcher,
San Diego, California.

Dear Ed:

I shall look forward to the flowers. And in that connection I will remember your explanation that flowers from the region of San Diego are, for some reason, better than the flowers from anywhere else in the world.

Whenever I think about you, which is often, I am reminded of your basic enthusiasm for your home section, and I am refreshed by it. There are so damned many people these days who are enthusiastic about nothing.

The very best to you and to all members of the family. I hope that you will have a good Christmas and that you will still continue to provide home lovers with Fletcher lots in good quantity.

Sincerely yours,

C. R. Smith
