Mr. E. L. Smith,
Encinitas,
California.

My dear Mr. Smith:

Please give me a list of the things that you really need up there. I am leaving town for a week but on my return I hope to find a letter from you stating just what you need and I can then take care of it for you.

I appreciate the way you are taking hold. Mr. Connor speaks well of you.

Yours truly,

California.

My dear Mr. Smith:

This confirms your authority to buy small things necessary to put the house in condition.

I do want the windowpanes immediately replaced and if you really want to go ahead I will furnish the putty and the paint and let's have the house painted both inside and out when ever you want to do it.

I would appreciate any suggestions from you from time to time for the good of the cause.

Yours truly,

June 29, 1929.

Mr. C. L. Smith,
Encinitas, California.

My dear Mr. Smith:

It is reported that you are planning to leave.
I hope this is not true. There is going to be a change up there soon and you are in line for a better position.

Will see you as soon as I can.

Yours very truly,

BF:KLM

Col. Ed. Fletcher
San Diego, Cal.

Dear Sir:

After I woke this morning got to thinking of what you said about trees in connection with Mr. Connor.

When we came here last spring, there were two rows of young trees across the south side of the lot which Mr. Connor said he had grown and budded in his spare time; the last of them were balled out somewhere about a week ago.

Possibly these are the trees in question.

Yours Resp
C. L. Smith

Mr. C. L. Smith,
Leucadia,
California.

Dear Mr. Smith:

Answering your letter of July seventh will say I am sorry you are going to leave. Don't fail to look me up.

Yours very truly
