Mrs. Marie Shea,
Box 31,
Springdale, Utah

Dear Mrs. Shea:

Replying to your favor of February 17th will say that there is $275 principal and interest due from September 3rd, 1929 to me on the contract.

If you own half of this contract there would be, of course, due from you $137.50 and interest from September 3rd, 1928 but no deed could be given to this property until the full amount is paid.

Yours truly,

MEF:AK

March fourth,

Mrs. Marie Shea,
Box 31,
Springdale, Utah.

Dear Mrs. Shea:

I have your favor of February twenty-sixth with check for $137.50 but you did not include the interest on this amount from September third to March third, 1929 amounting to $4.82 as per statement I forwarded to you some days ago.

Will you kindly send check for $4.82 to cover this interest to March third, 1929 which is your half, and oblige,

Yours very truly,

MEF:AK

November 6th, 1929.

Mrs. Marie Shea

Dear Mrs. Shea:

Enclosed please find certificate of title
covering the property which was recently deeded
to you.

Yours very truly,
