Dear Dr. Szyld, -

The thought you expressed at the meeting was set down by Omar Khayyam, as rendered by Fitzgerald:

"Happy the soul, having come, soon goes
But crowned with peace he that never came."

Dear Dr. Szilard,-

I am enclosing some data extracted from some references I have at hand.

With respect to you paragraphs 3 and 4, you will find the following well informed: Dr. A. Walton, School of Agriculture, Univ. of Cambridge, England

C. A. Turner, Inst. for Res. in Dairying, Univ. of Reading, England.

Erik Bloom, Royal Vet. College, Copenhagen. Denmark

F. X. Gassner, Colo. State Coll, Ft. Collins

G. W. Salisbury, Univ. of Ill., at Urbana.

About these matter and also to get a line on experienced specialists in artificial insemination, especially at the Calif Coll. of Agriculture at Davis, you should write Dr. A. S. Asdell, Professor of Animal Physiology, Cornell Univ., Ithaca.

Dear Dr. Hartman:

I am very grateful for your having gone to all this trouble to assemble the information which I need. I talked to Dr. Meredith Runner over the telephone and he is sending me his data.

With many thanks and kindest regards.

Sincerely,

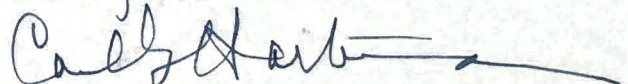

Leo Szilard

Dear Dr. Szilard:

Around the corner from you, at the Hyattsville Hospital, of the U. of Chicago, you will find our leading authority on developmental anomalies (including Mongoloids):

Edith K. Potter, M.D., Ph.D.

Dear Dr. Runner,-

Dr. Leo Szplard, c/o Dr. Robert B. Livingston, National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, 14, Md.
wants very much to have adequate figures on the falling off of fertility in the mouse with age. Can you help him out?

Many thanks in advance from

Yours sincerely
