My dear Ed:

Many thanks for your letters. I regret not having answered heretofore but I have been buried under an avalanche of work since my return.

You certainly did a bang-up job. Congratulations to you. Needless to say, I appreciate immensely all the kind things you say.

Good luck to you and all my best, as ever

Cordially yours,

Hon. Ed. Fletcher

My dear Senator:

The box of lemons, branches and all, arrived while I was in California and Mrs. Willkie even saved me one so that I might satisfy any doubts that might remain in my mind. Although, and I still can hardly believe it, I am on the verge of questioning my sense of taste, I have come to the conclusion that they must be sweet. Now all I have to see is the water pouring from the rock.

I am so sorry that I didn't have a chance to see you when I was in California, or to drop by your ranch for the visit you suggested. I am still hoping that some one of these days Mrs. Willkie and I will be able to accept your gracious offer of hospitality.

Cordially yours,

Hon. Ed. Fletcher
