

Dear Sir

London

Ms. B. 1. 1. v. 11

As I have not been favoured with one line from you since your arrivall in England, have had the less at present. But as I often see my dear good Cousin your Mother, who you often write to, She informs me how you all do, and it gives me great pleasure to hear that you and family are well, which I pray God may continue. I hope before this you have seen my Dear Pine Apple, and beg you will inform me how he is and how he goes on in his Learning, and shall be heartily Glad to hear that your Children and those that you have under your Care are placed at the same School with or near him, that they may cultivate and have as good a correspondence with each other, as their forefathers have done, long before this comes to your hand you will have seen my son William, and wife, and hear of the Death of my Dear wife, who departed this life the Second of June last to my sorrow and great loss to both Families. My Cousin Jacob Johnson had the misfortune to loose his Wife ten days after mine, and am with my kind love to you and dear Precious and all friends from
