Colonel Ed Fletcher,

San Diego, Calif.

My dear Colonel Fletcher:

Enclosed you will find the cancelled note of Julian Weir and wife in your favor, which has, as you know, been carried by the bank. This note was secured by a trust deed in favor of the Fidelity Mutual Corporation.

We are making a loan to Mr. and Mrs. Weir on the property covered by the trust deed, and it is necessary to have a reconveyance of the trust deed before the Title Company can close the loan. Won't you please put in our hands, at the earliest possible moment, the reconveyance, so that we may close this deal.

Appreciating your very prompt attention to this matter, we are,

Yours very truly,

O. E. Darnall

Friend Orton:

Confirming my telephone conversation I would appreciate any number that you can spare me up to 150 of the booklets of our park, prepared by Mrs. White and others and I will take full responsibility in relation thereto if there is any charge I will pay same.

I want them for distribution to the ladies of the party on the motorcade from Florida to San Diego. They will be distributed in El Centro before arriving in San Diego.

I will give Mr. Hansen an order on you for same.

Yours very truly,

EF:AK
