Dear Mrs. Wright:

It is my understanding that you will vacate and give possession of the house at 8th and Ash Streets as of November 1st, 1929, as I have people who are taking possession as of that date.

Kindly acknowledge receipt.

Yours very truly,

EF:GMF

Mr. Ed Fletcher:

This is satisfactory and I will vacate the premises on November 1st, 1929.

Mrs. O. A. Wright,
810 Ash Street,
San Diego, Calif.

My dear Mrs. Wright:

I acknowledge receipt of your note in answer to my letter of October 12th asking for vacation of the property.

We gave you the opportunity to make a lease and you refused. You have been paying rental on a month to month basis covering our Eighth and Ash Street house. You told Mr. Vangeburgh that you were going to vacate on the first of November and going into a smaller house.

We had only one thing to do and that was to make a new lease. The new people are going to buy their own furniture and you must vacate on the first of November.

Very sincerely yours,

EF:AK

I cannot sign this until
I have talked with you for it means signing away all I have
Mrs Wright-

Mr. Ed Fletcher,

San Diego, Calif.

Dear Mr. Fletcher:

Possession is hereby given to you of the 810
Ash Street house as per my agreement of October 17th, 1929.

I vacated same yesterday and I acknowledge receipt of the $100 as per the agreement.

Yours very truly

Wright
