November 21, 1929

Colonel Ed Fletcher,
1020 Ninth Street,
San Diego, Calif.

Dear Colonel Fletcher:

I have your letter of November 19th regarding the Solano Beach lands under the Blackton contract. If the money is received here, I will notify Mr. Crocker immediately of its receipt and get his instructions for its disposal. The decision on release prices would also have to come from Mr. Crocker. I am sorry I cannot give you more definite information on the above, but, as you know, Mr. Crocker is handling this matter himself.

I presume the question of taxes due December 2nd on these lands is being taken care of by the purchasers.

Very truly yours,
SOUTHWEST COAST LAND COMPANY,

Geo. A. Rose
Secretary.
