Friend Woodson:

I am glad to hear that you and the good friends are headed toward San Diego.

Don't fail to send us a wire or drop us a line about when you are going to be here as we certainly want to do our part in showing you a good time.

With kindest regards to you all, I am

Sincerely yours,

Colonel Ed. Fletcher,
920 Eighth Street,
San Diego, California.

My dear colonel Fletcher:

We arrived safely in Wausau some ten days ago, but, due to press of other matters that have accumulated, have not had an opportunity to write and thank you for the courteous treatment you accorded our entire party while we were in San Diego.

I cannot begin to express our thanks and appreciation for all that you did for us and our friends. Thanks to your direction and the maps which you gave we had a most delightful trip home. Inasmuch as we motored from San Diego to Wausau in exactly eight days, and that without crowding, we feel that San Diego is not so far away as formerly, and this is a very happy thought to us at least.

Again thanking you, and with very kindest regards, I remain,

Yours very truly,

Aytch P. Woodson

Mr. A. P. Woodson,
c/o Yawkey Lumber Co.,
Wausau, Wisconsin.

Friend Woodson:

Answering yours of the thirteenth I think it was remarkable - your run in eight days to Wausau, and mighty sorry however that you did not follow my advice and go by way of Lordsburgh over the White Mountains in New Mexico in the day time.

Don't forget we have that trip down in Mexico planned for next January or February.

Give my kind regards to all.

Sincerely yours,
