LAWS OF NEW YORK.—By Authority

CHAPTER 588

AN ACT to amend the membership corporations law, in relation to providing for the dissolution and reinstatement of membership corporations, and making an appropriation to the department of state

Became a law April 11, 1950, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, by a majority vote, three-fifths being present

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The membership corporations law is hereby amended by inserting in article eight thereof a new section, to be section fifty-seven, to read as follows:

§ 57. Dissolution of membership corporations. 1. Every membership corporation, the certificate of incorporation of which is filed in the department of state, except a corporation formed by or under a special law unless said corporation has reincorporated under the provisions of this chapter, organized prior to January first, nineteen hundred forty-eight shall, on or before June fifteenth, nineteen hundred fifty-one, file in the department of state a certificate which shall be entitled and endorsed, "Certificate of report of existence of . . . . . (state name of corporation), pursuant to section fifty-seven of the membership corporations law" and shall state:

(1) The name of the corporation, and if it was changed, the original name. (2) The date of the filing of the certificate of incorporation in the office of the department of state. (3) The law under which it was formed. (4) That its existence is hereby continued. Such certificate shall be signed and acknowledged by any officer or trustee or director or by five members in good standing of the said corporation.

2. On or before March first, nineteen hundred fifty-one, notice of the enactment of this section shall be given by the secretary of state to each membership corporation to which this section applies by mailing a copy of such notice to each of the first three persons named as a director in the certificate of incorporation filed by such membership corporation in the office of the department of state, directed to him at the address stated in such certificate, and to the person or corporation whose name appears on the endorsement of the certificate as having presented it for filing, if any, directed to him or it at the address endorsed thereon. A copy of this section must be endorsed on or annexed to each such notice.

3. On the fifteenth day of October, nineteen hundred fifty-one the department of state shall make a list containing the names of all such membership corporations which have not filed the certificate of report of existence required by subdivision one of this section.

4. The secretary of state shall make a proclamation under his hand and seal of office as to the corporations whose names are included in such list, declaring such corporations dissolved and their charters forfeited pursuant to the provisions of this section.

He shall file the original proclamation in his office and shall publish a copy thereof in the October issue of the state advertising bulletin in the year nineteen hundred fifty-one.

5. Upon the publication of such proclamation in the manner aforesaid, each corporation named therein shall be deemed dissolved without further proceedings.

6. The secretary of state shall mail a copy of the state advertising bulletin containing such proclamation to the clerk of each county in the state. The county clerk shall file such copy without charge, and shall indicate in their records alongside of the name of each corporation so dissolved the fact of such dissolution and the date thereof.

7. The names of all membership corporations so dissolved shall be reserved for a period of one year immediately following the date of the publication of the proclamation, and during such period no corporation shall be formed under a name the same as any name so reserved or so nearly resembling it as to be calculated to deceive, nor shall any foreign corporation, within such period, be authorized to do business in this state under a name the same as any name so reserved or so nearly resembling it as to be calculated to deceive.

8. Any membership corporation so dissolved may, at any time after October fifteenth, nineteen hundred fifty-one, file in the department of state a certificate which shall be entitled, "Certificate of annulment of dissolution, reinstatement and report of corporate existence of.....(state name of corporation), pursuant to section fifty-seven of the membership corporations law", and shall state: (1) The name of the corporation and, if it has been changed, the name under which it was originally incorporated. (2) The date of the filing of the certificate of incorporation in the department of state. (3) The law under which such corporation was formed. (4) That said corporation has failed to file in the office of the department of state a certificate of report of existence, as required by subdivision one of this section. (5) That it hereby elects to be reinstated and to continue its corporate existence. Such certificate shall be signed and acknowledge* by the president or a vice-president or its secretary or assistant secretary or treasurer. The filing of such certificate shall have the effect of annulling all of the proceedings theretofore taken for the dissolution of such corporation under the provisions of this section and it shall thereupon have such corporate powers, rights, duties and obligations as it had on the date of the publication of the proclamation with the same force and effect as if such proclamation had not been made and published. If such certificate is filed later than one year after the date of the proclamation of dissolution and the name of such corporation is the same as that of a corporation, either foreign or domestic, authorized to do business under the laws of this state at the time of such reinstatement, or so nearly resembles it as to be calculated to deceive, such certificate of annulment of dissolution, reinstatement and report of corporate existence shall not be filed unless it states that the corporate name is changed to ..... (the blank space being filled in with some available name), in which case the change of name shall become effective immediately upon the filing of the certificate.

9. The fee of the secretary of state for filing a certificate under subdivision one or subdivision eight of this section shall be five dollars.

10. If, after the publication of such proclamation, it shall appear that the name of any corporation was erroneously included therein, the secretary of state shall make appropriate entry on the records of the department of state, which entry shall have the effect of annulling all of the proceedings theretofore taken for the dissolution of such corporation under the provisions of this section, and it shall have such corporate powers, rights, duties and obligations as it had on the date of the publication of the proclamation, with the same force and effect as if such proclamation had not been made or published.

11. Whenever a corporation shall have complied with subdivision eight of this section, or whenever the action specified in subdivision ten of this section shall have been taken, the secretary of state shall publish a notice thereof in the state advertising bulletin and shall send a copy of such bulletin to the county clerk of the county in which, according to his records, the office of the corporation is located. Such county clerk shall file such copy and make appropriate entry on his record without charge.

12. Nothing in this section or in any certificate filed pursuant to such section shall be deemed to extend the period of duration of any corporation as specified in its certificate of incorporation or other certificate filed pursuant to law.

13. The purpose of this section is hereby declared to be the clearing of the records of the department of state of certain moribund membership corporations, and nothing herein contained is intended to penalize such corporations for failure to comply with this section.

14. The dissolution of a membership corporation under this section shall not operate to destroy a contingent gift, grant, bequest, devise* or remainder made to or for the benefit of such dissolved corporation. The dissolution of the corporation before the happening of the contingency upon which the gift, grant, bequest, devise or remainder was limited to take effect shall not operate to defeat the said contingent gift, grant, bequest, devise or remainder, but if the contingency should happen during such period of dissolution and the dissolved corporation is reinstated in conformity with the provisions of this section, the dissolved corporation as so reinstated shall be entitled to receive and to be benefitted by such gift, grant, bequest, devise or remainder as if the dissolved corporation had continued in existence until the happening of the contingency, provided such corporation is reinstated within one year after the happening of such contingency. Similarly, if the contingency should happen after the dissolved corporation has been reinstated, the said gift, grant, devise, bequest or remainder shall take effect in the same manner and to the same extent as if the existence of the dissolved corporation had continued without interruption until the happening of the contingency.

15. In the event that two corporations have common interests either one by one of its officers, trustees or directors may file a certificate of annulment of dissolution on behalf of the other. Such certificates shall set forth the nature and substance of such common interests.

16. The provisions of section twenty-nine of the general corporation law shall apply to membership corporations dissolved pursuant to this section.

§ 2. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of section fifty-seven of the membership corporations law, as added by this act, during the fiscal year commencing April first, nineteen hundred fifty, the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated to the department of state from any moneys in the state treasury in the general fund to the credit of the state purposes fund, not otherwise appropriated. Such moneys shall be payable on the audit and warrant of the comptroller on vouchers certified or approved by the secretary of state in the manner provided by law.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
