Dear Mr. Vazquez:

This is to acknowledge receipt of your proposal. The initial review indicates that it fits the Guidelines of the Minority Group Self-Determination Fund.

We will now distribute copies of your proposal to members of the Funding Committee of our Commission and to other evaluators. The Funding Committee will meet on February 19, 1979.

You will be hearing from Dr. Woodie W. White by letter regarding the action of the Funding Committee. No information on Funding Committee action will be given out over the telephone.

Any up-dating information you may want to submit must reach our office two weeks before the Funding Committee meeting.

If you have any questions, please contact me.

Grace and Peace,

Dalila C. Kruger
Associate Executive
Secretary

Dear Proposal Applicant:

Due to circumstances beyond our control,
The Commission on Religion and Race and the Funding Committee was not able to meet in February as planned.

The Funding Committee will meet on April 9th, 1979 to consider those proposals which would have been considered at the February meeting. You will be notified concerning the disposition of your proposal after that meeting.

Peace and Power,

Woodie W. White

RE: Immigration Advocacy Project #2131-II

Dear Mr. Vazquez:

This is to advise you the above project is being deferred by the Funding Committee of the General Commission on Religion and Race in order to clarify certain issues and to get additional information on your proposal.

You will be contacted by Ms. Dalila Kruger of our staff, who will follow up on this matter.

Sincerely,

Woodie W. White
Executive Secretary
