Mr. Baca:

I just cannot understand why you folks are against law & order.

The man who was killed by this policeman was ordered to stop, or should the policeman have said ALTA. He was a dope addict.

The Vietnamese learned our language, I learned it being also born in a foreign country.

Don't tell me that all the Mexicans are so illiterate that they can't learn our language. This is America, a wonderful country. Let's begin by learning to speak the language, or are so many Mexicans so dumb they can only speak Mexican.

A True American and proud of our language.

Dear Mr. Baca:

I completely fail to understand your distress at the shooting of Tato Rivera. Had Tato been a normal, ordinary, law-abiding member of society, I would have been among the first to condemn Officer Short. But Tato Rivera was a disease, a violent, dangerous junkie who pistol-whipped his own father. When a surgeon cuts out cancerous tissue from an otherwise healthy body so that the body may live, we applaud. Likewise, we should congratulate Officer Short, and not condemn him, for excising the disease called Tato Rivera from the societal body.

I'm sure Officer Short did not act on the basis of Tato's race. Trash is trash, whether it's Chicano trash or black trash or white trash or any other kind of trash. As for the basis of your "crusade", the stench of racism chokes the air. Can you honestly deny that it's made more fervent by the fact that Officer Short is white? Would you have been so outraged had the policeman involved also been a Chicano?

In closing, I would just like to say Thank God for a decent and fair-minded judge like T. Bruce Iredale.

Sincerely,

Thomas R. Howe

Border Patrol Checkpoint Is Doing Banner Business

Checkpoint Reopens, 222 Seized

By S.A. DESICK

Staff Writer, The San Diego Union

More than 200 illegal aliens were arrested at the Border Patrol's checkpoint on Interstate 5 near San Clemente yesterday when it resumed operations for the first time in 16 months.

By 9:40 p.m., 222 persons had been apprehended.

The checkpoint, reopened by a U.S. Supreme Court decision after being closed by lower-court rulings, went into operation at 12:01 a.m. yesterday. H.R. Mitchell, a supervising Border Patrol agent, said 126 illegal aliens were caught during the first two hours. He said the checkpoint was then closed for about five hours to allow agents to process the "overwhelming" number of aliens. He said the Border Patrol building was "filled up."

Agents were surprised at the large number. Mitchell said this was probably due to the failure of the checkpoint to reopen Friday, as originally announced.

"We didn't reopen Friday because we had to repair a malfunction in the electrical sign that warns motorists to slow down," he said. "Despite all the publicity that we had, when we reopened, the smugglers thought it would be a trap. We were

If you think this is a hate letter, you are right, it is. It is also something I have never done in my life. However, at last I can no longer remain silent in the face of the actions, demands and ridiculous charges made by you and the rest of your breed. I have tried all my life to feel no prejudice or animosity towards the thousands of mexicans and blacks in our country. I have forbidden my children to use words such as mex, spic, nigger, etc. in our home. However, you people are totally responsible for the negative feelings generated by the whites in this city by the sickening, terrible, shocking, disgusting and degrading things you do. You are rude, crude and lacking in self respect. Every single day there is another report of drug arrests in S.D. and across the country and sure enough the names are usually mexican. The majority of other crimes uncluding robbery, rape, sodomy, burglery, etc. usually have mexican names attached to them. You people appear to have no class, no respect for anyone or anything, and certainly no regard for the laws of this country.

WHITE POWER
PRIDE

You people want something for nothing and scream like hell if you don't get it.

In my job, it is the same thing. The mexicans loaf around, jabber and jabber in their hoarse, gutteral language, use foul words and just sneer at our Supervisor. Yet due to Supreme Court ruling, we are expected to "take these people to our hearts" and lavish loving concern upon them. To hell with that.

If you and your breed are hated and resented, you earned it. This country means nothing to you but a fast easy buck and an opportunity to spit on the "gringo". In the back window of the "low-rider" cars you people drive I constantly see pasted there the mexican flag. If mexico is that important to you, why in the hell don't you go back there? Pancho Villa may have gotten a rough deal, but I'll be damned if I will accept responsibility for the actions of our earlier American citizens.

I have tried to excuse your people for their ignorant ways and disgusting actions, but no longer. You people DO belong squatting in the fields close to the dirt which is so much like you.

You people bitch about "harrassment", well if the shoe fits, wear it. You wouldn't recieve this attention if you didn't warrent it. You taunt and insult our Law Officers and expect them to love you for it.

I am sick to death of you, your loud mouth, your low class people and the lienency of our laws in dealing with you. I finally do believe the insistance of the K K K in that the white race is superior in every way and if left to the blacks and naxin

PRIDE

You claim to be full fledged citizens of the U.S. yet you persist in jabbering away in the mexican language, you insist the teachers be bilingual and that your children be given exceptional treatment. But for the white children, nothing.

You cover the walls of this city with mexican graffiti and indiscriminately spray paint the homes and property of others with no regard for the feelings of the whites of San Diego.

My children are bullied and intimidated by the mexicans and blacks in their school and regardless of the obviousness of these actions, the school authorities are either unconcerned or afraid to do anything about it. An example, last semester, a mexican girl sat next to my daughter, all through one of her classes. This mexican girl could neither speak English, read, write, or participate in class. On the day of the final exams, this mexican girl blatantly copied my daughter's test paper. My daughter earned an A on her final and as expected, so did this mexican girl. The teacher was aware of this cheating act but did nothing about it. As I stated earlier, you people don't give a damn about anything and seem to have no pride in anything. You people scream discrimination at the ~~xxx~~ top of your lungs, well is it any wonder? How can you expect respect when you have none in yourselves?

My children hate mexicans and blacks and through no fault of mine. They have been exposed to the disgusting words and actions of you people and have formed these opinions through experience.

WHITE POWER

and mexicans this country would soon revert to a jungle, populated by animals such as yourself.

The majority of you seem to have no other ambition than to spray paint walls, intimidate whites, collect food stamps, drink tequila and "propagate" your race.

Granted there may be a slight few of you who have a degree of intelligence, but they are swallowed up by the vast majority of you mentioned in this letter.

I am leaving this city in a year and all I can say is Thank God the small town where I am going has a black and mexican population of ZERO.

In the meantime, I shall no longer reprimand my children for their words and feelings towards you people.

They hate you and so do I. Even "CHICANO" sounds like a dirty word.

I shall not sign this letter, not because I am a coward but because I fear retaliation upon my children and spray paint upon my house!

Also because a fire bomb tossed in my front window would come as no surprise considering this is the sort of thing you people are good at.

A FED UP AND DISGUSTED

P.S. No Government in the world can legislate brotherly love and concern, it must be earned, and you people either don't know or don't care just how this is done. You ~~neither~~ give nor generate consideration. Think about that.

Five Men Sought In Kidnapping, Shooting Of Woman And Sailor

By GENE CUBBISON

Staff Writer, The San Diego Union

National City police are seeking five men in connection with the kidnapping of a 23-year-old Chula Vista woman and a 21-year-old sailor who were shot and left naked in the trunk of their car near Southcrest Park in Southeast San Diego early yesterday.

The woman, whose identity is being withheld, was admitted to Paradise Valley Hospital with shoulder, neck and chest wounds, and later transferred to University Hospital, where she was reported in critical condition.

National City Police Lt. Thomas Fowler said the woman was raped repeatedly by the men after she and the sailor — identified as Michael Smith, an electronics technician stationed aboard the destroyer Orlick here — were abducted at gunpoint outside a bar at 7th Avenue and Roosevelt Street in National City.

Smith was reported in stable condition at the Naval Hospital yesterday with bullet wounds in the hip, mouth and throat.

According to investigators, Smith and the woman were accosted Saturday evening by two young men — one armed with a small-caliber handgun — and driven in their own car to a National City apartment where the kidnapers picked up a third man.

The group subsequently drove to Southcrest Park, in the 4100 block of Alpha Street, where they were joined by two more men.

Police said Smith was stripped and forced into the trunk of the car while the woman was assaulted by the men, then stuffed into the trunk with Smith.

The two then were shot three times each, and the trunk lid was slammed shut on top of them. However, the lid came slightly ajar, enabling Smith to escape and go for help.

San Diego police officers arrived on the scene at 12:50 a.m., eventually turning the case over to the National City Police Department for primary investigation.

Fowler said the suspects — who have been described as four young men of Mexican descent and one black — are being sought for kidnapping, rape, attempted homicide and sex perversion.

National City, where a third man entered the car.

The group then drove to the park, in the 4100 block of Alpha Street, in the midst of hills and trees.

Smith was told to get into the trunk of the car and was locked in while the three men raped the woman.

Two more men arrived and also raped her. She was then placed in the trunk nude with Smith.

When the men were unable to close the trunk this time they shot the couple and left.

Smith then crawled out of the trunk and staggered about 250 yards to the nearest house. Residents there called San Diego police.

When investigators arrived they found Smith incoherent and had to trace his bloody tracks to the car where they found the woman.

Four of the suspects are described as of Mexican descent, between 20 and 25 years old. The other suspect is a black man.

Two Marines face charges

CAMP PENDLETON — Murder charges have been formally filed against two Marines in connection with separate slayings, a spokesman said yesterday.

A third Marine charged with two counts of murder and four of attempted murder, Sgt. Earl J. Holley, has been found mentally competent to stand trial by a board that included two psychiatrists.

The spokesman said Lance Cpl. Armando L. Vasquez has been charged with two counts of murder, one of unpremeditated murder, one of attempted murder and two counts of assaulting officers in connection with a stabbing spree Jan. 20 in the base hospital.

Cpl. David L. Martin is charged with the strangulation death of his wife, Leslie Elizabeth, who was found in the couple's apartment Feb. 7, the spokesman said.

He said pretrial investigations into the charges, a prerequisite to a court-martial, are pending in both the Vasquez and Martin cases.

Vasquez, who was hospitalized following a truck accident in which one of his passengers was killed, is accused of going on a rampage in which two other hospital patients were killed.

He was confronted by a military policeman and shot two times before he was brought under control, the spokesman said.

gone in the shooting deaths of two sergeants Jan. 4 in the base photo laboratory and four counts of attempted murder in the shooting and stabbing of four other sergeants.

Seven indicted on charges of smuggling illegal aliens

Three San Diego residents and four people from Los Angeles have been indicted by a federal grand jury here on charges of transporting illegal aliens and extortion.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Daniel K. Green said charges against the defendants were returned yesterday in connection with a plot to extort money from parents who had arranged for their children to be smuggled into the United States from Mexico.

Those indicted include Rudolfo Corona, 21, of 655 Delcardo Ave., San Ysidro, and his mother, Paz Corona-Munoz, 47. She was indicted under the name of Maria Munoz-Ocampo. Also indicted were Oscar Clara-Ocampo, 19, a resident alien of Los Angeles, and Luz Alonzo-Flores, 19, and her sister, Eva, 22, of Los Angeles. Others named were Manuel Hernandez-Vargas of Los Angeles, and Ceclia Rodriguez, of San Diego.

Green said the defendants were charged in connection with attempting to extort additional money from two families before they would release to them children smuggled into the country.

One child was brought into the country in an agreement that $150 would be paid, but $200 more was asked for release of the child, said Green.

He said another family paid $2,000 to smuggle their seven children into the country. The smugglers, said Green, turned over four of the children, but held three until their demand for $900 more was satisfied.

The defendants were charged in a 15-count indictment listing smuggling and ransom offenses.

One child, Fabiola Castellanos, 7, was freed after a four-month separation from her family in Chicago.

Another child, Rolondo Marquez-Pacheco, was also held by the smugglers who demanded more money for their services, said Green.

The defendants were charged after an investigation by the Border Patrol.

Court says sex with youth illegal

SANTA FE, N.M. (UPI)

The New Mexico Supreme Court has upheld an indictment charging a 23-year-old woman with contributing to the delinquency of a 15-year-old male because they engaged in sexual intercourse.

The ruling reverses a decision of the Court of Appeals, which found the woman did not violate any state laws by engaging in consensual sexual intercourse with the youth Feb. 12, 1977, at her Clovis, N.M., home.

The state Supreme Court issued the unanimous decision yesterday without elaboration, but a formal opinion will follow soon. In the meantime, the district attorney at Clovis may proceed to trial with the charge against Ernestine Favela.

Judge Lewis Sutin of the Court of Appeals had ruled the act merely contributed to the youth's sexual education.

"A consensual act of sexual intercourse engaged in by a young man is nothing more than sex education essential and necessary in his growth toward maturity and subsequent domestic family life," Sutin said.

MEXICAN SOLUTION TO THEIR OWN SEWER PROBLEM!!

Nick Cappos' new cabbage crop on his farm in San Ysidro was deluged by a sewage-laden wall of water unleashed Saturday from a flood drain on the Mexican side of the border. He estimated his loss at $100,000.

Flood Of Sewage Washes Out Crop

By GENE CUBBISON

Staff Writer, The San Diego Union

Nick Cappos figures he has lost $100,000 worth of cabbage as a result of a manmade flash flood through his Tia Juana River Valley farm Saturday.

Cappos had planted more than 30 acres since rains washed away a previous cabbage crop last month. His new plants were deluged when a wall of sewer water was unleashed from the Mexican side of the border at about 3 p.m.

"It's a total loss," Cappos said yesterday. "That stuff gets down into the heart of the cabbage and won't clean out. And you can't get any insurance for crops."

Cappos, of 2608 Hollister Ave., San Ysidro, said the tide was released by Mexican highway officials from a 10-foot flood drain in the waterlogged earth fill under the Playas de Tijuana expressway.

"If they had just let it trickle out naturally, and not opened the gates all at once," he said, "this wouldn't have happened."

The sewage and whatever chemical treatments in it, Cappos noted, will take a long time to flush out of the soil.

One of Cappos' neighbors, James Martin, told bitterly of how the sudden flood washed out a 30-foot-high dike on his adjoining 20-acre ranch at 2140 Monument Road.

"It was six feet of water and 10 feet of foam from their sewers," he said. "We get some raw sewage down here about five times a year — they always say one of their pipes broke — but this time it was worse because they just opened the floodgates."

Authorities in Tijuana could not be reached for comment yesterday on the incident.

Flood problems have plagued border relations for decades, and have grown more acute in recent years since the completion of the Mexican portion of an international flood-control project in the Tia Juana River Valley.

To Martin, Tijuana's sanitation problem — which San Diego officials have taken into account in planning new sewage facilities — is becoming a greater issue.

"Everything they can shove through our canyon is stuff they don't have to put through their treatment plant," he said. "So we and about five other ranches have to live with it. The smell is really bad and I hate to think about all the germs down here."

Dear Mr. Baca,

I am taking time to write you because I was so upset to read your quotes in a recent interview. I am an Anglo, a woman, with a moderate income. I am very much interested in the illegal alien problem. Of course you call them "undocumented workers." I am well aware of the economic pressures existing in Mexico, especially along the border. Yet "coyotes" exploit Mexicans to smuggle them across the border. We simply cannot absorb all the illegal aliens from Mexico that you seem to want to ship across. As it is, our tax money in San Diego is being spent on medical care and welfare on illegal aliens--I personally know of many examples of thés. With Prop. 13, we cannot afford more money for aliens to bail Mexico out of its economic problems.

Your "unconditional amnesty" program is totally unacceptable to me. There is no "racist game" involved at all. I am a native Californian, and went to school with Mexicans in Glendale many years ago. I would not go along with your "slaves and 2nd class citizens" routine, and neither would any thinking Anglo. You come across as a rabble-rouser, not as a Chicano leader who can reason our mutual problems out. Such strong language from you doesn't help solve any problems--you merely anger the very Anglos whose support you need.

When it comes to bi-lingual education and such, that is wrong. Your Chicanos and illegals need to learn English as fast as possible in order to be absorbed into our economic life and be self-respecting citizens. The bi-lingual routine merely delays their success. English is the language of our country, and we should not promote a sub-culture which speaks another language.

May I suggest you take a less emotional approach to the illegal alien problem, and be a more intelligent leader.

Very truly,

Mrs. J. J. White

Who do you think you are anyway--there are all kinds of races of people in the United States--Chinese, Japanese, Germans, Italians, and even us Hawaiians. The whole U.S. is not only Mexicans, they belong in thier own country.

You remind me of Hitler, only Hitler was more intellegent and better orgorized than you--but he failed miserably and so will you.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to you as a last resort to get something done next door to my home.

This past year a group of Mex-Ams bought the house across the drive way from mine. In about a week the yard looked like the Tijuana slum area. The sale price of this house with the half acre it sits on was in the neighborhood of $83,000, so it is quite obvious that a pooling of finances was necessary to handle this deal. This house is not anything elaborate, but is not so very old either. The former owners were divorcing thus the sale.

Now Mr. Baca, some of my growing up was in New Mexico, and everyone seemed to take a certain amount of pride in the looks of their homes, so it is difficult for me to understand why in such a short time, these people have shown such an utter disregard for the appearance of their property, when the rest of us keep up the appearance of ours. The zoning is being violated by more than one family living in a single dwelling home.

If you have a rep. in this area, I would be glad to meet with them and show them what a mess these people have made of the area around their house.

I think every Mexican in the country should be sent to Russia and put out of this country. Illegal entry into the United States, another crime has been committed against the citizens of the United States! These Defenders, supported by your tax money, have, in effect, accused your U.S. Border Patrol of having a silver in its eye. While Defenders ignores the board in its own eye.

Readers should be aware that the U.S. Border Patrol's allegiance is to the citizens of the United States. They are trying to protect you. On the other hand, those who oppose the Border Patrol appear not to be overly concerned with the rights of citizens of our country to be protected from an invasion of illegal aliens. They appear to be more concerned with protecting those who are contributing to the fall of what's left of our fine country — illegal aliens, smugglers, and other criminals.

U.S. citizens, your country needs your support and involvement. Let your U.S. attorney and the U.S. Border Patrol know that you do want enforcement of immigration laws. Even more importantly, tell your congressmen that you want them to put a stop to the invasion!

If you do not respond to this and other calls for action, do not blame the U.S. attorney and the immigration officers for increased problems caused by your apathy.

Federal Defenders hit

Editor: Five attorneys for Federal Defenders recently attacked U.S. Attorney Michael Walsh for not prosecuting Border Patrol agents accused of brutality. Federal Defenders spends much of its time defending the criminals that the Border Patrol has arrested so it is easy to see how those attorneys could be so prejudiced against the patrol.

I view the comments by the Defenders attorneys as yet another attempt to obscure the fact that 20 million or more illegal aliens have already entered the United States and many times that number are on the way. United States citizens, wake up!

These Defenders quickly accuse the Border Patrol of brutality but they make no mention of the fact that every time an alien effects an

Dear Mr Baca,

It has been my desire to write to you on many occasions, but never got around to it.

Your views do not represent all Mexicans.

You are hurting your people more then you know.

It has been my feeling that by having bi-lingual education the Chicano is becoming a second-rate citizen.

The enclosed article that appeared in last Sunday's Union says it much better.

How can Chicanos expect respect, when young teen-agers go wild with their spray cans and deface peoples property. Are you proud of this? Why do you, ^{not} as a concerned representative of your people make them understand the meaning of respect for other peoples property.

Many of my best friends are of Mexican descent. Fine people who are Americans first and also very proud of their Mexican Heritage. They might have had a harder time learning English, but they did learn. Today, they don't sound like they were born in Mexico, but speak excellent English and continue to converse in Spanish when the occasion arises.

So, in the future, Mr Boca, you can help those people you

A Hispanic Asks For Less Spanish

By MAURICIO MOLINA

LOS ANGELES — I was naive 20 years ago. I say this because I came here from Central America and readily accepted what my parents told me. What they told me was that if I wanted to thrive here I had better learn English. English, it seems, was the language that people spoke in this country. In my innocence and naivete, however, it never occurred to me that I really didn't have to. I can see now that I could have refused.

Yes, English is the language of the United States. But if it is, why can I take the written part of my driver's license test in Spanish? If it is, why are businesses forced to give me Spanish translations of practically every blank credit application or contract agreement? And not just businesses — government offices must also have quite a number of Spanish translations for me.

Clearly, my old language did not get left behind. Don't misunderstand; this is real nice. It allows me to luxuriate in the knowledge, sweet indeed, that I am privileged. Without a doubt this is the land of opportunity. And I know it. But for those of us people call "Hispanics," it's a little bit more. It's the land where opportunity itself is served and seasoned as if this were the old country.

How stupid you must think me for complaining. Should we not simply take the opportunity and run? Why complain? Complaining may only spoil the fun for those among us who don't want to learn English.

But I choose to complain. I do it because questions nag at me. For instance, just who are those people for whom the Spanish translations are provided? It's a good guess that they're not Chinese, or French, or Serbo-Croatian. Of course, we know them already as "Hispanics." But what in the world does that mean?

A Hispanic is someone who came, or whose ancestors came, from a region where Spanish is the only language spoken. Nothing more. Racially, a Hispanic may be anything. It's a mistake to say "Hispanic" and mean by the term a black Cuban just as much as it would puzzle a Chilean named O'Hara.

As to who precisely among Hispanics has a need for the Spanish translations, I can't tell yet for sure. If you'll follow me a bit, though, we may together unravel this puzzle.

I would divide Hispanics living in the United States into two groups. Those who were born in this country and those who came from elsewhere. It is easy to see that a number of individuals in the latter group, people who perhaps knew no English when they arrived, may have linguistic problems here. Logically, some among them may have need of Spanish translations.

The first group I mentioned, made up of people born and reared here, should have no need of any translations, right? Well, not exactly. I'm told that many among them know English very poorly, if at all. So of course they need the help.

But here I hope you'll forgive me if I pause to say that I think this is a very strange thing. I mean, isn't it odd in this day and age that people born right here in the United States may not somehow have mastered English?

Spanish translations have got to be a dandy thing for Hispanics who know no English or know it very poorly. This is a thought I can agree with. But while I'm agreeing with it, another question comes to mind: Why can't they learn? What precisely is preventing them from learning it? Are they all too old? Might they all be babes in arms? Are too many among them mentally handicapped? Nobody could logically reply to any of these questions with a "yes."

Who, then, are the translations meant for? Ah, you probably guessed it by now. They're meant for a goodly cross-section of Hispanics — average, reasonably healthy and intelligent children and adults.

"Is a puzzlement," the king of Siam, who was trying to learn English, said in "The King and I." Indeed, in this context, it is. If it is puzzling that so many of the Hispanics know no English, it's even more puzzling that they don't bother to learn it.

I regard these translations as a waste of effort and money. To me they constitute a largesse of opportunity totally lacking a logical foundation. And what is the "logic" behind them? The answer I get is that these people are favored so that they may not suffer, because of their handicap, a diminution of their constitutional rights. The thing isn't done out of kindness, but simply out of a sense of fair play.

Fair play? I think not. Unfairness would be to deny these people the opportunity to learn English. But are they being denied? From where I live I couldn't throw a rock out the window without risking severe injury to a number of English teachers. And at various places nearby — YMCAs, colleges, high schools, grammar schools, convention halls — English courses are available for the foreign-born or anyone else who needs them. That, ladies and gentlemen, is opportunity. It's there, but it won't pull you by the nose.

This country has been, is, and I pray will continue to be, the land of opportunity. It has never been a place where the lazy came to be coddled. It has never been a haven for those who would not look out for their needs.

What do I think should be done? I think that no Spanish translations should be made of anything. Except for one. Spanish translations should be made, and these distributed widely, detailing the availability of English courses throughout Hispanic communities.

What if people don't bother to attend? Well, it's a free country.

And, if this article finds any kind of approval with your group, please send me some more materials to read about your work so I can better understand more of the things that are happening amongst the immagrnts. Do you publish any kind nesletter? AMEN?

CHICANO FEDERATION

I read Mr Herman Baca's letter in San Bernardino's "EL CHICANO" newspaper. It was entitled "U.S. BORDER PATROL USES GAS ON IMMAGRANTS". I don't know if Mr Baca is with your Federation or not but I thought he might be.

In the article it says gas but not what kind and it doesnt say why it was used and for what purpose. Was it a deadly gas or maybe just clouds of mild irritant or maybe someones dirty joke thats trying to turn into an international incident?

No violence is good but to keep anarchy from destroying even the people who are trying to help regenerate even the violent criminal sometimes it proves the only way some hardcore criminals allow authorities to subdue them to a state where they are no longer a threat to good citizens. Theres always a few rotten apples in every batch.

I dont know if the Border Patrol uses Mexican police or any Christians but if right men were used maybe both sides of this tremendous issue could be properly heard and human measures could be used by human hearted officials.

My observance of Mexican barrios is that there are some mean and violent people there. A few can distort the whole image of the barrio community in the eyes of the rest of the world. Definitely barrio revival programs are needed but that si not the issue here

Perhaps the HOLY BIBLE might somehow give us some knowledge for the solving of the issue on the border.

It looks like millions of uneducated, desperately poor people who have dreams of obtaining those things in life they hear about in the U.S.A.

GOD created all men and we have no moral right to judge what level en-masse GOD'S hand has dealt to a nation, a sector of a nation, nor to hinder or harm any persons person, or cultural level that by birth they come into and most likely in the case of Mexico's poor, not by choice.

We cannot overlook the earth on the edge of nuclear catastrophe, ecological annihilation etc, and ruled (since Noah's time) by a small handful of wealthy GOD-less people. It looks like "warfare, farms, ecology, moon shots and, jabbering politicians till earth fades away.

Some Mexican people who arrived here on a big ole' pink cloud are bustin' shoe leather to get back to good old Mexico. Ive talked to some who left thier little village farms and went to where the money trees grow only to barely get out with life and limb and alot of Mexican immagrants who are boxed into barrios and frozen with terror would give a thousand U.S.A.'s to get back to the donkey cart and the friendly little village where everybody respects thier neighbors rights to exist.

What can we require of these poor souls hoarding in on us who have no real schooling, no knowledge of U.S. culture, no English etc and all puffed up like a blimp over the glorius dreamland (barrios) that they risk thier life savings and life to reach and then can't even compete with the already overtaxed job market in the barrios?

Why doesn't someone tell them; the U.S.A. is Russia's first nuclear target and theres not one target to bomb in Mexico? A half starved chicken for dinner is better than the terrors of barrio life in America.

What does Mr Baca want us to do about the border problem? Shout and stomp?

I would like to have a thourough writeup in print published with photos in some major papers.

We cannot despense with an effective border patrol. Millions of sorrows, personal problems and many potential criminals are slipping into the pounding hell of L.A.'S streets to be pulverized. Telling them the truth about America on the Mexican side of the line would be the biggest favor you could do for them. I suppose that people so baat down by a life of poverty and in a country that won't even do good for its own when it could (MEXICO), won't hear sound reasoning; well, if success here in the land of plenty (plenty of problems) could be had for them then I vote yes. I welcome these Mexican immagrnts but of course maybe on conditions. Mercy isnt always letting those immagrants have thier way, they need to be baby-sitted until they wake up to what theyve got themselves into!

When Cuba dumped thier rebellious, thier fearful, thier oppressed on us the Peruvian Embassy provided a "nuetral zone" where the refugees could find help.

Along the U.S border we need "nuetral zones", "international zones" where escapees and refugees can cross over and find refuge. In a way they would be turning themselves in but in these zones there would not be immediate deportation. Theses areas would teach the immagrant thru pictures, movies, pamphlets, verbal teaching, all about the barrio life, the migrant life, ect. They need to know the truth about the feelings of the overall population, the strained job market etc.

But and if they decide theyll give it a try then centers for changing them are necessary. At theses Federally funded centers they would receive medical exams and treatment for diseases, psychiatric and emotional evaluation so that totally incapable persons dont end up on jobs where they will be a burden to themselves and others. Perhaps big hotels could be used of "camps" if I can safely use the word, where the families would have quarters, schools would teach English, math etc-they would learn medical emergency aide and skills and trades. Even theses people could be converted from some of thier primitive religious ways to more modern Christianities like Baptist, Apostolic etc. They need to be programmed on how to react to every day events of U.S. culture in a way that wont make them look inept or foolish in the eyes of thier employers.

Perhaps a check could be kept on the in going and flow of weapons, drugs, alchchol pornography and anti*Christian cults or anti-Democratic murmurings that might spring up to cause immense problems(that would then put those people on the level of a barrio) and defeat the whole programs purpose.

Let us not keep adding up the "get even" score and tall the elected Govt. representatives about the problems in detail. We must present them with healthy alternatives to aleviate thier fear of this immense problem. We must deal with it humanly now before it does escalate into U.S. Govt. action against the immagrants or Mexico.

Let us not lower ourselves to the level of the minority of troublmakers and then be part of the problem instead of part of the solution.

You have the greatest possible advantage over the persecutors of the immagrants, you love them and want them to have a good, moral life. That one asset "LOVE" will wait out the storms, humble to greater forces but not give up, give a handshake with a smile to U.S. Govt. appointed officials who who dont know the first thing about Mexicans and thier ways of life and thinking.

We cant save the world, its been tried for eons and failed. Most people dont want to sacrifice thier lives and time for the wellbeing of others especially when thier is no great glory to be had, just hard work.

One things for sure, we do not want to enrage the military wrath of the U.S.A. and bring it down upon the immagrants. Force begets force. The leaders of the Hispanic communities of this country have in thier hand the power to bring good or evil down upon the heads of the masses they represent. Are we going to let "our" emotions at critical testing points creat more problems or make sure that whats been done and cant be changed wont happen again? If the American govt. imposes a "38th parallel" along the border it wont be me or Mr Baca or Hispanic leaders but it will be the poor, the helpless, hungary, ragged and sorrowful masses whos fate lies at the mercy of those in America who might be able to help them.

We must look at the aspects of the problem from both sides at once. Look at the emotional and psychological makeup of the leaders of both sides, they are different, they have raised in different cultures and for the most part didnt give a nicle for the welfare of anyone till they got into politics and then just to try to do a good job to get relected. Keep away from the deep rut that strides each side of the road called "my way, my way, my way" and balance the teetering craft before everything turns into chaos and disorder.

GOD will help you if you keep OUR LORD JESUS in your heart as you go about y your work to help humanity. If you give these simple peoples a chance they usually show a greqter appreciation than U.S born spoiled brats and if we can keep them from enlarging barrios but train them and ship them all over the U.S.A and thin them out we will have a new crop of good Mexican*American citisens who will love GOD, law and order and will help cur country to recover itself from its horrible depreciating backslide.

This morning at Cerritos Community College, Norwalk, California I attended my first meeting of English 50.1 Room LA 29 with Miss Weigel. I was kicked out of the class by miss Weigel saying "they are sending a lot of people" but I believe if she expected to work in summer time she had to teach no matter how many students because they got computers and know if the class is full; I was sit on the second chair of the first row and even that she said "you got to move because somebody is there" I replied "so we are not free to sit in any chair? she said "no" "is the only way to know who sits in there" "by numbers" I said "we are not numbers that is why we got names". She said " don't argue with me this is my class and I do what I want to, leave the room" I said "Why?" she said "I do not want you in here leave the room" ignoring me. I went to talk to Mr. President of the college a nice person but he could not do much about it.

I am a native Americanindian (Mexican)veteran who feels that this kind of treatment is discouraging for Mexican people to get into the colleges. We have been loyal to the country fought in wars and the pay we receive is DISCRIMINATION AND RACISM FROM THESE NAZI PEOPLE .

I belong to the Río Hondo College District but to me Cerritos Community College is closer to my home main reason I tried to attend that college.

I ACUSSE TO MISS WEIGEL AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE NAZI FACULTY OF CERRITOS COMMUNITY COLLEGE FOR RACISM AND DISCRIMINATION TOWARD MY PERSON AND MEXICAN PEOPLE. SUIT THAT I WILL PRESENT TO THE PROPER AUTHORITIES.

Copy of this letter will be sent to Mr. José López Portillo, President of México to let him know that we Mexican people natives from the American Continent suffer discrimination and racism after we serve to the country in the Armed Forces.

Presidents of Colleges, Universities,
Educational Institutions and Mexican Organizations of the United States of América

In your application forms and schedule of classes there are some errors that I feel should be changed to avoid further boycotts.

- 1.- Ethnic survey. We, Mexicans as native American indians are placed as Hispanics which is a mistake. It means Spanish. It is true that we got Spanish surnames from those invaders but we are not Hispanics. Native American indians: From Alaska, U.S.A. and México. Filipinos got Spanish surname too but they are Asians also.
- 2.- Spanish. How is possible that this language is classified as "foreign language" when here in the U.S.A. are living millions of Mexicans, native American Indians speaking this native language and for historical, geographical, political, cultural, economical and social reasons this "foreign language" should not be treated in that way.
- 3.- Fine Arts. Cinema. Radio. Television. Theatre. Lack of Mexican films, plays and others related to Mexicans. Those racist teachers should be realistic not ignoring us because if ^{THEY} got German, Japanese and other films What is wrong with Mexican Films? Discrimination? Where are those human rights? Democracy?
- 4.- Degrees. To talk about Mexican matters is still taboo and if we protest for the same respect toward our people it means to get lower qualifications this discrimination should be stopped. These racist anglosaxonunitedstatean teachers must realize that we are tired of it. We want the same respect and treatment.
- 5.- Admissions in Colleges and Universities. Racism and discriminations against Mexicans to get into those universities. Legal excuses like "you- are not qualified" "you don't have the requisites" policies that are just applied toward Mexican people because those policies never are applied to Anglosaxonunitedstateans, afrounitedstateans- and orientals and not because they got higher qualifications.
- 6.- Financial Aid. It is just a waste of money. It does not work. To me this program is not for everybody. Not for Mexicans.

Sincerely,

Andrés Torres

Sirs: Re: Political refugees - and others.

There are those who thump their breasts and proclaim us a compassionate people. They proclaim we believe in helping the oppressed of the world. They proclaim we must have an economy which sustains a population of those who "want" to work. Any well person "wants" to work, so subtly pointing a finger and proclaiming we desire to help those who "want" to work is a psychological untruth.

My! My! We are very full of self-righteousness - and hot air! Do we welcome the Haitians, the Mexicans, the Philippines, the Puerto Ricans? NO. In fact we loudly proclaim they are the cause of our unemployment, our health service being inadequate, our educational system being poor. But the people who come from Cuba, the boat people from Kampuchea, So. Viet Nam, etc.: they are immediately the "oppressed of the world." They are political refugees - and we must help them.

The people of Haiti, Mexico, the Philippines and Puerto Rico are in a very sad state, and their condition is entirely the fault of the USA, because of our exploitation of them. To start with the people of our country are hungry, ill housed and clothed, poorly educated and unemployed. It would make us a lot happier if our elected officials would do something about the homefront first, then help those countries we are exploiting so shamefully.

If we would quit over-feeding the military we could easily take care of the homefront - and we might even save our country.

Thank you for thinking about this.

Five Men Sought In Kidnapping, Shooting Of Woman And Sailor

By GENE CUBBISON
Staff Writer, The San Diego Union

National City police are seeking five men in connection with the kidnapping of a 23-year-old Chula Vista woman and a 21-year-old sailor who were shot and left naked in the trunk of their car near Southcrest Park in Southeast San Diego early yesterday.

The woman, whose identity is being withheld, was admitted to Paradise Valley Hospital with shoulder, neck and chest wounds, and later transferred to University Hospital, where she was reported in critical condition.

National City Police Lt. Thomas Fowler said the woman was raped repeatedly by the men after she and the sailor — identified as Michael Smith, an electronics technician stationed aboard the destroyer Orlick here — were abducted at gunpoint outside a bar at 7th Avenue and Roosevelt Street in National City.

Smith was reported in stable condition at the Naval Hospital yesterday with bullet wounds in the hip, mouth and throat.

According to investigators, Smith and the woman were accosted Saturday evening by two young men — one armed with a small-caliber handgun — and driven in their own car to a National City apartment where the kidnapers picked up a third man.

The group subsequently drove to Southcrest Park, in the 4100 block of Alpha Street, where they were joined by two more men.

Police said Smith was stripped and forced into the trunk of the car while the woman was assaulted by the men, then stuffed into the trunk with Smith.

The two then were shot three times each, and the trunk lid was slammed shut on top of them. However, the lid came slightly ajar, enabling Smith to escape and go for help.

San Diego police officers arrived on the scene at 12:50 a.m., eventually turning the case over to the National City Police Department for primary investigation.

Fowler said the suspects — who have been described as four young men of Mexican descent and one black — are being sought for kidnapping, rape, attempted homicide and sex perversion.

National City, where a third man entered the car.

The group then drove to the park, in the 4100 block of Alpha Street, in the midst of hills and trees.

Smith was told to get into the trunk of the car and was locked in while the three men raped the woman.

Two more men arrived and also raped her. She was then placed in the trunk nude with Smith.

When the men were unable to close the trunk this time they shot the couple and left.

Smith then crawled out of the trunk and staggered about 250 yards to the nearest house. Residents there called San Diego police.

When investigators arrived they found Smith incoherent and had to trace his bloody tracks to the car where they found the woman.

Four of the suspects are described as of Mexican descent, between 20 and 25 years old. The other suspect is a black man.

"If you haven't got a victim, you haven't got a crime. And it was that close. That's how the timing is on this whole thing," Freeman said.

He said the scheme revolved around procedures used to transfer money and was broken open only by a series of accidents in an investigative drama as mind-spinning as a top television drama.

It involved a bank president in Lomita who thought there was something strange going on, but was convinced by another bank that all was okay.

It involved the Torrance police department checking up on the suspect because it thought the bank involved was in Torrance.

The drama ended when Adam Ramirez, 36, an unemployed restaurant manager from Stanton, was arrested aboard a commercial airliner only minutes before it was scheduled to take off from Los Ange-

Good morning, Mr. Baca:

I am a bit disturbed about your constant criticism of our Law Enforcement Agencies.

You know if this greenster had been in school where he belonged he would have not been picked up AND had he had his "ID" on him he would not have been taken to Tia Juana. Personally I think he & his family are lucky to be in U.S. & with all this furor I hope they find some way of sending them across the Border. They don't seem to be grateful to be living on this side of the Border.

I'm enclosing a write-up that was in last night's paper. How fortunate for these Aliens AND how lucky they were to be admitted to a hospital at MY (TAX PAYER) expense -

Why not hear some praise from your Committee?

How about this one sided business regarding this bus travel? Shouldn't you say we have been entirely too lenient - with this one sided affair also the sewer problem or don't you notice such things?

It's time that you & your Committee quit nit picking & be grateful for all the "freebies" the taxpayers get stuck with

Personally I wish the Border was closed until all this sewer problem, bus problem, E.D.P. problem & etc were taken care of to OUR satisfaction

Comments about deported boy rile rights activists

By Vicki Torres

Tribune Staff Writer

Immigrant-rights activists have responded angrily to statements by an Immigration and Naturalization Service commissioner that a 14-year-old legal resident deported to Tijuana was not mistreated.

The teenager, Mario Moreno Lopez, said he was intimidated into declaring that he was in the United States illegally.

"He clearly at no point told us he was legally here," Commissioner Alan Nelson said. "We also are quite interested in what might have prompted him to make some of these claims and also to change his story on several occasions after having talked to several people."

Nelson said that the service had determined that no basis existed for Mario's claims of mistreatment.

Immigrant-rights activists disagreed.

"It seems to us incredible this boy would have made statements to get himself deported when he was a lawful alien resident," said Gilbert Paul Carrasco, director of the National Center for Immigrants' Rights in Los Angeles.

In addition, Carrasco said, an investigation into the Border Patrol's actions in the case was conducted by its parent organization, the immigration service, instead of by an independent body.

"It taxes the credulity of the public to expect them to believe this investigation was done in the interest of the truth rather than in the interest of the INS," Carrasco said.

Herman Baca, head of the Committee on Chicano Rights, said Nelson's statements imply that the boy "is the criminal and they're the victims."

"The fact remains that he was deported," Baca said. "If that youth would have been blond-haired and blue-eyed, he never would have been stopped, let alone deported."

He added that the commissioner's statements wrongly implied that others had influenced the boy's statements.

"The only thing we have is the word of the child against the word of the INS officials," said Marco Antonio Rodriguez of San Diego's Center for Immigrant Affairs.

Rodriguez said the deportation was mistreatment itself.

The Santa Ana youth was picked up in a sweep of people suspected of being undocumented aliens Feb. 22 in San Diego and was taken to Tijuana, where his father searched successfully for him for nearly five days.

The boy sneaked back across the border and was found Feb. 22 in San Diego.

Upon his return, he told reporters that Border Patrol agents refused to believe he was a legal immigrant and made no effort to check his statements.

3 bandits assault, rob undocumented aliens

Two undocumented aliens who were attacked by robbers were found by Border Patrol agents early yesterday in a river bottom in San Ysidro.

Jesus Perez, 35, was shot in the right leg, and his brother, David Perez, 27, was beaten. They were treated at Bay General Hospital and released.

The Perez brothers and two other aliens were assaulted as they slept in the river bottom near Palm Avenue and Beyer Way, said San Diego police spokesman Bill Robinson. Three robbers wearing bandanas made off with 36,000 pesos and $485 in U.S. currency.

In another robbery Thursday night, six undocumented aliens were stopped by three armed robbers north of the 6000 block of Otay Mesa Road, Robinson said.

The bandits took 10,000 pesos and jewelry and ordered the Mexicans to it down at a nearby clump of bushes. One of the victims, however, spotted a Border Patrol helicopter and waved for help.

Border Patrol agents arrested two undocumented aliens in connection with the incident, Robinson said.

Nicolas Navarro Cecena, 23, of the Mexican state of Nayarit, and Francisco Javier Lopez, 20, of the Mexican state of Sinaloa, were booked into county jail on suspicion of armed robbery, false imprisonment and kidnaping.

Court says sex with youth illegal

SANTA FE, N.M. (UPI)

The New Mexico Supreme Court has upheld an indictment charging a 23-year-old woman with contributing to the delinquency of a 15-year-old male because they engaged in sexual intercourse.

The ruling reverses a decision of the Court of Appeals, which found the woman did not violate any state laws by engaging in consensual sexual intercourse with the youth Feb. 12, 1977, at her Clovis, N.M., home.

The state Supreme Court issued the unanimous decision yesterday without elaboration, but a formal opinion will follow soon. In the meantime, the district attorney at Clovis may proceed to trial with the charge against Ernestine Favela.

Judge Lewis Sutin of the Court of Appeals had ruled the act merely contributed to the youth's sexual education.

"A consensual act of sexual intercourse engaged in by a young man is nothing more than sex education essential and necessary in his growth toward maturity and subsequent domestic family life," Sutin said.

Unfair Mexican Tariff

A Mexican labor union is exacting tribute from the passengers of every U.S. tourist bus that travels across the international border.

The collection is conducted by the Tijuana local of the Mexican Chauffeurs' Union. It demands and collects from $1 to $2 for every passenger who is carried across the border on the equipment of 14 U.S. bus companies.

The union justifies the action because of an agreement that was made 14 years ago. Until 1972, U.S. tour buses were banned from carrying passengers into Mexico. This ban was lifted on condition the U.S. bus companies pay a fee for each passenger.

THIS TRIBUTE HAS risen over the years and now amounts to a lot of money — more than $200,000 annually. It means that the bus lines have to charge more per ticket — so much that tourists are resisting the higher costs by staying at home. This is bad for both Mexico and the United States.

The Mexican drivers' union has 400 members. It has 14 buses, but eight of the total are broken down and can't operate. That means only six bus drivers who belong to the Mexican union can be working at any one time.

Nevertheless, the money collected from U.S. companies pays $108,000 a year toward the salaries of the 400 union members. The union says the rest goes for taxes, vehicle maintenance, insurance and payment on union property near the border.

THE ACTION is not reciprocal. Mexican buses with California plates operate in the United States each day. They can be seen at such tourist attractions as Las Vegas, Disneyland and the San Diego Zoo. They have to pay registration fees and buy insurance but do not pay a tribute to the Teamsters or any other labor union.

The Tijuana labor toll is one-sided and Mexican businessmen, alarmed at the reduction in the number of tourists in Tijuana, are seeking some other means to compensate the union. They say the fee is hurting their city and causing a negative reaction on the U.S. side of the border.

They have approached Gov. Xicotencatl Layva Mortera of Baja California Norte and the union officials, seeking some means to end the passenger fee.

-HOWEVER the matter turns out, U.S. bus lines should not be paying a fee to a labor union. And if the Mexican government refuses to see the unfairness of this tariff, then Mexican buses should be charged the same amount when they cross over the line.

COMMENTARY

The Immigration Problem Begins In Mexico

By ALFONS HECK

Now that the U.S. Border Patrol has literally run out of gas, our frontier to Mexico is finally wide open to anyone with merely enough energy left to walk across.

As a former immigrant, who waited a long time to be admitted to the United States, I can sympathize with the feeling of frustration for the millions who'll never make it here legally, and decide to take matters into their own hands. Nevertheless, no member of the Committee on Chicano Rights will ever convince me that every illegal immigrant has a legal right to be in the United States. We as well surrender our sovereignty to Mexico. Our tuna boat captains think we have done that already.

There is no doubt, though, that our whole immigration policy needs to be restructured, just as there is no doubt that we have indeed exploited cheap Mexican — and especially illegal Mexican — labor. We are, still doing it. But in spite of strident cries of "Yankee Imperialist" exploitation, the root cause of the problem is certainly Mexican and not American. Even the now out-of-office and frequently anti-American President Lopez Portillo admitted that freely. The United States acts, in fact, as a safety valve for Mexico which, after 50 years of one-party rule and despite its new-found oil riches, is still beset by abject poverty, a weak middle class, and a small upper stratum which revels in luxury and has very little feeling for the misery of its poorest. Since more than half of the Mexican labor force is unemployed, and their numbers are increasing faster than any realistic chance to put them to work, massive future social revolt is almost inevitable. As patient as most long-suffering Mexicans are, they are beginning to realize that they are living in a "guided democracy," ruled by a largely corrupt regime, which makes most "Yankee slave farmers" look positively benign. These, at least, provide work, even if often at pitiful wages.

I don't mind the usual overblown rhetoric of some statements by the Committee on Chicano Rights. By and large, its purpose is to protect human rights and to draw attention to obvious abuses, often suffered by legal and illegal aliens. But I must draw the line at such wild flights of fancy as comparing the U.S. Border Patrol to the Gestapo and the border to the Berlin Wall. As a former German, I have known both. Even a minimally-informed critic should know that the Berlin Wall is part of the deadly "Iron Curtain," dividing the two Germanies. It's a mile-wide death strip seeded with mines, bristling with machine gun towers, barbed wire and high-voltage fences. Within that "no man's land" the East German "Volkspolizei" open fire on anything that comes near it. By contrast, the worst that usually happens to an alien trying to sneak through the "Tortilla Curtain," is quick apprehension and deportation, unless he's attacked by border bandits.

To apply the label Gestapo to the Border Patrol is more than hyperbole. It's a calculated insult. The Ge-stapo's function was to exterminate Nazi Germany's political enemies — real or imagined — and it succeeded with appalling efficiency, as its millions of victims prove. No border police in the world face the daily onslaught of intruders as the U.S. Border Patrol does. Last year alone, nearly one million illegal aliens, mostly Mexican, were apprehended. In the San Diego sector about 700 are caught — or were caught before this present gas shortage — every 24 hours. These sheer numbers suggest that — by and large — they are treated humanely, although exceptions certainly have occurred and will occur again. But brutality is just not the official policy of the United States. It is an individual act. Nobody could possibly say that of the Gestapo.

Recently, a printer for the Committee on Chicano Rights advocated the border should be as open as that between Germany and France. "Based on respect," he said. I was raised 15 miles east of the French-German border, and I have news for him. First of all, Germany and France are roughly equally-advanced nations within the European Common Community. One country does not unload millions of unemployed, under-educated and poor citizens on the other.

While it is true that any Frenchman or German or Dutchman can travel across the border at any time, he still is required to carry a personal identity card, which may be checked at any time — even in his own country. It frequently happened to me. Secondly, nobody — but absolutely nobody — is given the required permit of residency, not even for six months, unless his employer vouches for his job. Moreover, every German or Frenchman must notify the authorities within six weeks of a permanent change of residency — even in his own country.

Illegal foreign workers are ruthlessly deported.

Justified criticism is one thing, but political hyperbole is quite another. I could, however, live quite happily with that too, if only once — just one single time — the members of the Committee for Chicano Rights were to protest against these intolerable conditions at the source. Why not parade in front of the presidential palace in Mexico City first, and then perhaps in the streets of Tijuana?

Checkpoint outrage

Editor: The Ad Hoc Committee on Chicano Rights feels the recent decision by the Supreme Court, which allows the resumption of operation of the San Onofre checkpoint, is outrageous, offensive and symptomatic of the nation's drift toward fanatical racism and discrimination.

It is incomprehensible that in this day and age such a racist act could be passed by the highest court in the land which is supposed to protect the U.S. Constitution. Not since the hysterical imprisonment of Japanese-Americans in concentration camps during World War II has such an infamous act occurred.

This act by the Nixon-appointed Court is a far-reaching decision of excluding 15 million Mexican-Americans from the protection of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. The Supreme Court decision is evidence that America does not consider Mexican-Americans as citizens with the same rights as White America.

Once again a helpless minority is being persecuted and made the scapegoat for grave social, economic and political problems which have been created by politicians.

The murderous behavior of the IRA in Belfast only proves the British view that these people should be supervised. It is evident that these emotional children are not capable of governing themselves. What puzzles me that the Catholic Church does not excommunicate these heathens who frequently break three of the ten commandments with malice, revenge, hatred.

I am also amazed that priests here in America have collected money under false pretenses (food and clothing) to arm these mad dogs.

It's so silly

When one thinks he has heard everything, then something new crops up. The Catholic bishops recent proclamation that a redistribution of wealth is necessary to help the poor is on the face of it so silly that it taxes intelligence.

The Catholic Church in those countries to our south encourages breeding to a point that it forces multitudes illegally across our borders. Is such human life sacred as claimed by these organized egotists? Poverty, ignorance and crime are perpetuated by the poor, ignorant and criminals.

Actually, poverty is a state of mind which is solvable by discipline, education and family planning.

UNION DONALD S. FARRAR

The last proclamation by the Catholic bishops in regard to poverty is so ridiculous, it deserves contempt. Poverty is a state of mind and is caused largely by ignorance, and breeding like animals with little or no thought of the distress that follows.

A perfect example of this lack of responsibility is the plight of the countries south of our border. They believe that is "macho" to be potent and this is directly encouraged by the Catholic Church, which is against family planning, sterilization and abortion. To top this off, the church claims that human life is sacred — with behavior like this?

My pilgrim forefathers experimented with this "to each his need." This theory ended in failure in six months.

Cut down profligate and promiscuous breeding and fiscal poverty, and ignorance and crime will drop.

Any mental weaklings will con their supporters for help for failure after failure.

Sterilization, family planning, abortion and suicide should be encouraged among those misfits who breed like animals with little thought for their unaffordable offspring.

It is disheartening to observe the human race which can live in outer space breeding with inheritable diseases and with criminal disregard of the consequences.

Dear Sir:

I would like to comment on the, Mèxican Alien problem in this Country.

These people are costing us money in welfare to which they are not entitled to, and in medical care, here in San Diego, it cost us taxpayers about a half million dollars in out patient care alone not counting hospital care.

There are Mexician Nationals working in jobs here that could be done by Veit Army Vets, some are working on jobs that are soely financed by American tax payers moneý.

Right here in Say Ysidro there are school children from Tijuana going to school financed by American taxpayers, I violently resent this outrage, let them go to their schools in Mexico.

Here at Southwest Jr. High School there was a protest by Mèxican's demanding Bi-lingual teachers, these kids were born in the U.S. and if they can't speak and understand The American language, (English) let them eat cake. I witnesses the protest there was about 20 cars FROM Mexico With about 4 people in each car in the march, waving a Mexican flag, NO AMERICAN FLAG was shown. Bilingual teachers cost the taxpaying American Citizens MORE taxes.

They now want a relaxed immigration policy, tolet their loved ones, and familys from Mexico into this Country to join them, Let they go back to Mexico and JOIN their familys if they miss them so much. These Chicano's push You off the street, one of these days they are going to push to far, and, there isn't going to be and Chicano's to worry about.

This Country cannot take every poor sick person in the world, the taxpayers are at the end of their rope, something better be done, and fast, You preach birth control, I would rather have an American have a child than have a immigrant come to this country. Boy, Mex-Americans, Negro-Americans, Japanese Americans, WHAT, no plain Americans any more????????????????????

The Mexic's will want us Americans to speak Spanish pretty soon and the Politicians will probably pass a law to that effect.

These Mex'x NEVER, become Americans, they may take the oath to get what they want,BUT they are Never true Americans.

I think The Mex border should be closed, and round up the Aliens and ship them back, we don't need any more welfare artists.

A lot of people don't know the mood of the White people it is getting to the explosion point, I was approached by people who want a WHITE, organization, to organize the whites to fight for our rights, they are sick and tired of being pushed around, they want equal opporunity, with the Blacks And Brown's. I hope I'm not around when they blow up, the blacks and browns will get what they are looking for.

This isa serious matter I Hope and pray some one will come to their senses and look into this.

The GreaseBall Mexicans were on T.V. Complaining as usual. They have the world by the nuts in this white country and are going to complain themselves right back to Mexico, or 6 ft. under. They scream about bi-lingual education--- this Country SPEAKS ENGLISH, not pig latin, if they want Spanish language, education food, signs, TV programs, parks etc, why the Hell did they come here, Mexico has all that stuff PLUS A Communist State. The Politicians give into them like a washed up hoar, any thing they want they get. They have kids like field mice, they smell like a goat, I can't see how they have kids who could screw them they're so ugly. (Cops, forgot about the nigers).

We are starting a All White Organization, for the Advancement AND Protection of the White People which We don't get from the Police or Politicians. We are not anti Niger, greaseball or Yellow, we are just Pro-White. Whites are Never given equal time, the Nigers complain about Whitey, the Yellow Asians complain about the Whites, the Greaseball Mexicians Complain about Whitey, How come nobody defends Whitey, as if we need it.

Mixicans say they are Spanish, they don't look It, I guess it is because they mixed in with the Indians and the Nigers, You see a lot of that in Latin America.

The Mex's keep threatening War against the U.S. Christ We can't wait, I hope they start it soon, that'll be the sooner We take Mexico all the way, to below Mâxico City then they will have something to cry about. We're going to deport all non-whites that are left.

Chief Honcho;

Hello Baca,

Hope you recieved my last letter. This is your WHITE, ANGLO*SAXON, PROTESTANT Adversary again with a tidbit of information for you. I certainly hope you were able to see on the news last night, the arrest of five of your big, strong, ugly representatives of mexican manhood as they were led into jail. Isn't it marvelous that it only took five of your animalistic countrymen to rape, beat and nearly kill one small American woman? How proud you must be of this accomplishment in behalf of all your low class people!

Never mind the fact that this young woman is paralyzed for life, and scarred mentally in a way that can never be healed. As I told you before, you people are about as base as anything human can be. If in fact you can say these people are human.

No doubt your Welfare paid Attorneys are down there right now busily arranging INNOCENT pleas for the whole damn bunch.

If they had to vent their sick and immoral sexual urges on any woman, why couldn't they have chosen a mexican bitch, instead of an innocent white woman? Perhaps they hoped her whiteness would somehow rub off on them.

There is no punishment good enough for these people of yours, but in my opinion, they should be castrated, without anesthetic, their male organ cut off, stuffed down their throats and their mouths sewn shut. Then beaten to death. That in my opinion would be justice. The loss of four or five mexicans would be no loss at all.

I am enclosing the Newspaper article in the event you missed it or managed to ignore the entire incident.

Tell me again how and why we "Gringos" should love and respect you people? You can keep trying to convince us, but it will never happen.

Police would drop assault charges

NATIONAL CITY — Police here have asked that all charges against Juan Santamaria Jr., 21, be dismissed in connection with the kidnaping and shooting of a Chula Vista woman and a Navy man.

Santamaria, of 2004 Lanoitan Ave., was freed without bond from county jail yesterday by Municipal Court Judge Robert J. Cooney pending formal dismissal of a 12-count complaint issued against him by the district attorney's office.

Deputy District Attorney Joseph Van Orshoven said he will review the case against Santamaria but expects to move that the charges be dismissed next Tuesday when Santamaria is scheduled to appear at a preliminary hearing on the case.

Santamaria had been jailed since his arrest Feb. 17.

Police here would not comment on the case but Van Orshoven said Santamaria bore a "striking resemblance" to a composite drawing police compiled with the help of the woman victim.

Five other suspects have been arrested in the case and are being held in county jail. They face charges of kidnap, rape, robbery, sex perversion and assault with intent to commit murder.

The case involves a Chula Vista woman, 23, who has remained unidentified at the request of authorities, and Michael Smith, 22, an electronics technician aboard the destroyer Orlick, who were abducted Feb. 12 at gunpoint outside the Western Bar, 22 W. Seventh St.

The pair was driven to Southcrest Park in San Diego where the woman was raped repeatedly and the victims were forced into a car trunk and shot several times, police said.

Dear Mr. Baca -

Would you please tell me what you have against the idea of the San Diego police keeping and reporting on statistics showing the percentage of crimes committed by illegal aliens? How is this, as you say, "a racial vendetta against every person of Mexican ancestry"? Do you think that all illegals are Mexican? Do you think all Mexicans are here illegally? Why do you want to specifically protect people who are breaking the law? Your suppression of information reminds me of the kinds of things that the Soviet government does.

THE INSIDE STORY

BY PAUL KRUEGER

HERMAN BACA'S POLITICAL RHETORIC IS so overheated that his predictable criticisms of the border patrol and U.S. immigration policy are routinely ignored. But Baca, chairman of the Committee on Chicano Rights, scored last week when he roundly criticized businessmen who've proposed a 520-acre auto raceway on the eastern reaches of Otay Mesa.

Racetrack promoter Jim Stanton had called a press conference to announce "major concessions" to the border patrol, which argued that the crush of racing spectators would provide welcome cover for the thousands of Mexicans who illegally cross the border at the mesa. To assuage the patrol's concern, Stanton said he would build a border patrol checkpoint on the raceway's exit road, a guard tower atop the raceway's highest building, and three new fences between the track and the U.S./Mexico boundary line. The raceway would be supervised by a 300-man security patrol, and Stanton's press release also promised "permanent, on-site facilities for border patrol agents, as well as a temporary detention center" to hold the illegal crossers.

Word of the temporary detention center, however, wasn't mentioned in news stories. Stanton says he asked reporters not to include the reference because he never intended to build the detention center, and he says a communications blunder caused the facility to be erroneously included in the press release. But sources say Baca and Dan Muñoz, publisher of the weekly La Prensa newspaper threatened reams of negative publicity if the racetrack promoters continued talk of a miniprison. The sentence was excised from a revised press release mailed the following day.

Baca kept the heat on, calling press conferences in San Diego and Tijuana to attack the "humiliation and degradation" of Tijuana auto racing fans who would "be subject to possible internment at a paid, public event." The checkpoints and security force also had "grave implications for the civil rights of San Diego's 300,000 Mexican-Americans," who, Baca warned rhetorically, would be forced to file through gates marked "Mexican Only" and "White Only."

The border patrol,

meanwhile, was equally unimpressed with Stanton's offer to beef up raceway security, arguing that the concessions didn't go far enough. "The security measures might prevent illegal entry into the [raceway] compound," says deputy chief border patrol agent Mike Williams, "but it doesn't alleviate the problem of spectators' cars being used to transport drugs and illegal aliens" north from the border. Having pleased neither side, promoter Stanton now says he's

"in the middle of a controversy that goes far beyond our project." Indeed, the border patrol's intransigence seems to have pushed Stanton closer to Baca's corner. The two men talked privately last week, and Stanton now says there is "merit" to Baca's concern about giving "the border patrol unprecedented authority to dictate to a private business what it may build on private property."

Politicians frequently take

Baca asks $1 million from National City

Herman Baca has turned the tables and filed a $1 million claim against National City, alleging officials conspired to drive him out of business.

Baca yesterday said the claim stems from the city's attempt to require a conditional use permit to operate his Aztec Printing Co. and names the City Council, Planning Director Roger Post, the Planning Department and business license inspector Terri Bettencourt.

Baca said the city is carrying out a political vendetta against him for his role as chairman of the Committee on Chicano Rights, a civil rights organization.

The city last year brought criminal charges against Baca, claiming violation of zoning ordinances. On Jan. 31 the city asked for dismissal of the case when Baca's attorney presented a city document proving the business was not required to have a permit.

Baca said the city continues to refuse to issue him a business license because he does not have a certificate of occupancy. Bettencourt said the necessary inspections were completed Tuesday and she will soon send Baca a license application.

The city attorney could not be reached yesterday and the planning director declined comment, saying he could not discuss pending litigation.

Dear Concerned
Citizens -

No the cops aren't all bad & when they say freeze you better stop
as if one is ⁱⁿ innocent
they don't have to run from the law & there have been too many crooks escape so the law must have teeth in it as too much crime in the streets so if any one don't freeze for investigation a lead slug will make sure they do & soon the citizen will learn never to run from the cops

as their job is difficult enough & we don't need any communists to tell us not to obey the law so not very one will go along with you & most citizens are tired of all this crime so you better "freeze" to let the cops see what you have been up to & looks like you are up to plenty now.

A concerned citizen

Greasballs:

You piss and moan that you're getting the White Shaft, tough shit.

I have a good idea, why don't you greasers start a war with the U.S.?

We are getting edgy waiting for you yellow bastards to start it. I guess we will have to start our campaign.

You greasers are in deep trouble

卍 + KKK

Heil Hitler our Lords.

The evidence contained in your letter to the Local paper labels you as Chairman of a subversive organization. An illegal alien of any nationality is a thief of the rights of legal alien and American citizens.

THE AMERICAN CREED IS STILL MEANINGFUL

I believe in the UNITED STATES of AMERICA as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice, and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

WHATS THE MATTER BACA, ARE YOU AFRAID THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT WILL FIND OUT JUST WHO THE ILLIGAL ALIEN REALLY IS. WE KNOW THAT THEY ARE HERE FOR NO GOOD, ONLY TO DO YOUR DIRTY WORK FOR YOU. WE KNOW ALL ABOUT THIS CONSPIRACY. YOU JUST TRY ANY THING WITH US AND YOU ARE GOING TO BE THE SORRIEST TRAITOR ALONG WITH THE OTHERS THAT EVER LIVED. WE KNOW ALL THE KEY TRAITORS MEN AND WOMEN. YOU HAVE A 24 HOURS WATCH ON YOU TAIL ALL THE TIME. WE ALSO KN ABOUT CHAVEZ, HE IS THE WORSE. AND HIS OPERATION IS ALSO BEING CLOSELY WATCHED. SO LOOK OUT BUSTER, YOU THINK WE ARE ASLEEP, YES JUST LIKE THE CAT WATCHING THE MOUSE. SO DONT GET CAUGHT IN THE JAWS OF THE MOUSE.

So we impose a double standard in justice toward you. If you don't like our law enforcement — go back to Mexico! If all you wet backs went back there'd be more jobs and less taxes for those of us who belong here.

On the other hand, if you stay, learn to abide by the laws we have and you won't be picked on.

I am a minority too, but proud of my new country and try to learn their laws and obey them. I am an American and proud of it.

An open letter to Herman Baca and his countrymen;

What is a "Chicano"?

A "chicano" is the present day leftover of what was once a proud people. A "chicano" is a low class creature with dirty brown skin and rasping guttural voice. Except when communicating with his own kind, in so called "native" language. Then the voice becomes loud and chattering similar to wild birds in the trees. Totally incomprehensible. A "chicano" is something that sneaks across legal borders in the dead of night with the intention of creating chaos among decent white, tax paying citizens of the United States.

A "chicano" is something that takes great pleasure in marring every available wall, bridge abutment, house siding, etc. with black spray paint. Even to the extent of their own abodes.

A "chicano" is something that is only proficient in constant fornication thereby propagating more of the same low class creature.

A "chicano" is something ~~that~~ that lies and cheats in order to obtain Welfare funds originally intended for the really poor and needy.

A "chicano" is something that purchases an automobile, then proceeds to lower it to their own ground level and garishly decorates it with fuzz, chrome, outlandish paint, and "cruises" up and down the public thoroughfare with the odd idea that they look "classy".

A "chicano" is something that defaces public buildings with sick and hideous paintings and call it "art".

A "chicano is something that teaches it's offspring not to respect anything or anyone, including teachers, Law Officers, Judges, etc.

A "chicano" is something who, for lack of any other ambition, organizes themselves into "gangs" and prey on decent citizens, mugging, robbing, raping, you name it.

A "chicano" is something that demands to be recognized, yet won't even bother to learn the language of their "adopted" land.

A "chicano" is something that wants all for nothing. Something that screams for "their rights", yet know nothing of the United States Constitution.

A "chicano" is something that yells for "Spanish" ballots, then don't bother to vote because they can't even read.

A "chicano" is a creature with no pride, ambition, courage, intellect, intelligence, or determination.

A "chicano" is a worthless fungus creeping across MY beloved land leaving a trail of scum in their wake.

A "chicano" is just another name for "wet-back", who would do us all a favor by crawling back across the border to TiaJuana where they belong.

Now baca, you know just exactly what you are. You and all the others just like you. Is it any wonder you are not welcome in this country?

Go back where you belong, prey on your own kind, leave this United States to the decent white citizens who were instrumental in building it into the great power it is.

Go eat your beans and tortillas, fornicate with your fat ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ brown women, grovel in the dirt, drink your Tequila, use knives on your neighbors on Saturday night, make paper flowers to peddle to the tourists on Sunday, go do all these things that give your worthless life meaning.

I know of what I speak. Believe me.

I am a native of San Diego. I grew up an Orphan, raised by poor but clean and honest relatives. When I came of age, I worked days and attended college by night, Never once "begging" for a handout of any kind. No Welfare, no State aid, nothing.

Now I have two children in College, a beautiful home on ~~two~~ acres of land, a swimming pool, tennis court and three cars in my garage. I have money in the bank, deeds to much property and a respected place in my community. Most of all, I have PRIDE in myself and my accomplishments.

Is it any wonder I become sick at my stomach each day when I read the paper only to see once more the tricks, schemes, crimes, and most of all, endless crying of something for nothing by you and your kind?

I am sick of paying high taxes that go to support you and all the other low class "chicanos" in our area. You have no right to be here and the sooner you realize it the better. Our Founding Fathers were all WHITE and I am certain ~~there~~ they never intended their blood to be shed for the worthless brown creatures south of the border.

Return to the other side of "the fence" and leave America for Americans. You have no place here, this is NOT your land and you have one hell of a lot of nerve to think it is. Go register your complaints to Lopez Portillo, see how far you would get then. Even he has no use for you, only for his rich "mexicans" in Mexico City.

Whatever, just don't slam the door or spray any more buildings on your way out/signed. a fed up Citizen of San Diego.

P.S. I would sign my name but would rather not be knifed or raped.

In closing I might add, if you can read, have you ever noticed that in the majority of crimes reported in the news, most of the names are mexican? Especially Rape, Robbery, gang fights and knifings? Doesn't that tell you something?

Needless to say, I cheer inwardly each time I see or hear of one more "chicano" shot, knifed or run down. That means only one less to infect our town.
