Dear Col. Fletcher:

The writer realizes how busy you always are and the fact that you have enough worries of your own without borrowing anybody elses, but also appreciates your continued desire to help some body else when you can.

With this in mind, I am asking that you kindly keep me in mind for any opening that you may have in your own organization, or that you may hear of in some other organization, as I expect to terminate my present connection next week, due to the fact that there is no opportunity for advancement.

My experience consists of twelve years in accounting and office work, including Income Tax Returns, Credits and Collections and General Office work, also seven years selling and managing experience. I am also familiar with local Tax records.

This is brief but will give you an idea of what I have and can do. My record is perfectly clear, have never lost any time on account of sickness and can make good wherever I am given a chance. I am anxious to make a permanent connection which will enable me to stay in San Diego.

If you know of anything at this time, or will keep me in mind in the future, I would greatly appreciate it, and assure you, you will never have any regrets in my behalf.

Thanking you, I wish to remain

Sincerely yours

Dear Col. Fletcher:-

Sometime ago the writer inflicted a letter upon your good self requesting you to kindly bear him in mind for a job.

I am still anxious to make a change and must do so soon. I want very much to stay in San Diego but so far haveint had very much encouragement from any one.

I can do a lot of things well and am willing to work at anything. If you
