

Vienna, July 21th 27

Dear Mr. Fletcher,

Many, many thanks for your welcome letter and also the box of delicious fruit, which you so kindly sent - I need not say how much my boy and I enjoyed it -

The little books were most interesting - I am glad you liked the book of old castles - It is a pity you were not here last week when there were some lovely fêtes in Vienna and one on the Danube was particular nice on the Hackaw-I hope that you will surely repeat your visit with Mrs. Fletcher this time, whose acquaintance I shall be very pleased to make -

We have all had the pleasure of welcoming your wonderful young aviator Chamberlin who honored Sienna by his visit yesterday.

With kindest regards to you and your dear family in which my dear boy joins very sincerely

My dear Mr. Fletcher,

My dear brother Manny informs me that you were good enough to hand him $ 10- to be used for the purpose of purchasing some useful item for my boy Eric during his vacation -

At first I felt somewhat reluctant to accept the check but upon considering the matter and my brother's explanation that you are so fond of children and it really gave you pleasure to remember Eric, I accept your generous gift with many thanks and the understanding that you and all the members of your dear family will permit me now and then to place my modest home at their disposal.

With renewed thanks and very best wishes to you and your dear family, I remain

Your most appreciative

Rosa York
