Mr. Ed Fletcher Jr.

Dear Sir -

Referring to the delinquent rent in the amount of $153.93 owing you, would like to assure you that I will liquidate this account as soon as possible.

I regret to say that at the present time it is impossible to pay even a small amount but I assure you it is uppermost in my mind and will be taken care of promptly with the first money

I receive.

As you no doubt know, we have left practically all of our personal property at the Court as evidence of good faith and we are particularly anxious to redeem
it.

Very truly yours

J. Harrison

Mr. W. J. Harrison, 1134 Euclid Avenue,
Santa Monica, California.

Dear Mr. Harrison:

Considerable time has passed since I heard from you and am wondering whether or not you are in a position to pay anything on account of the rent incurred at the Glendale Court.

Any amount, however small, would be appreciated at this time, as we have interest payments to make.

Thanking you for anything you may do at this time, we are,

Yours very truly,

EFJr/RO
