Dear Ed-

This is just to inform you that we arrived home on the fifth day after we left San Diego, might have come the night of the fourth day, but knew that we were not expected and the house would not be ready for us and stopped off at Trinidad over night.

We had a very delightful trip home, nothing to mar the pleasure of it, just had to plod along and see the country. Now we are at home in our little cottage, and quite happy, and also happy in the thought that we may see you all again next winter in San Diego. Love to everybody from both of us.

Affectionately,

H. H. Stevens

My dear Stevens:

Mighty glad to hear from you and that you arrived home safely.

Things are moving right along here. Since you left, we sold the John D. Spreckels Building to the Bank of Italy, and everything now looks as though we will get the lighter than air base on Camp Kearney. Four or five new buildings will be in course of construction very soon and we are doing quite well selling outside property, both up the coast and at Grossmont.

On the first of May we had a fine experience catching trout at Eagles Nest.

The folks are all well. We leave to see Willis graduate in June and will come home via Boulder Dam and Zion National Park.

Give my love to the folks and drop me a line from time to time.

Yours sincerely,

EF:GMF

Dear Mr. Stevens:

I was certainly glad to have had the opportunity to talk with you Sunday regarding Grossmont property and hope that sometime in the future I may take you out and more thoroughly explain and show to you the merits of Grossmont, Helix and Fletcher Hills for suburban homes as well as from an agricultural standpoint.

Sincerely yours,

EF, Jr:GMF
