My dear Senator:

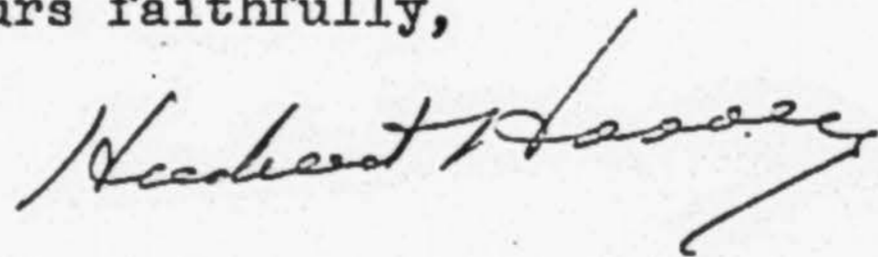

Dr. Wilbur believes it will be too hot to go into Lower California in June. Perhaps we could do it in the fall.

I am free from June 19th or 20th to visit the Exposition.

It was a great pleasure to see you again.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Ed Fletcher

San Diego, California

My dear Senator:

I will probably motor to San Diego.

I have had a request to come to Washington, Minnesota, and Iowa on matters which concern us all, and I feel I should do so rather than take the time for so much of a pleasure trip as the one to Mexico.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Senator Ed Fletcher
Sacramento, California

My dear Fletcher:

Many thanks for your note.

I was much interested in your letter from Scripps. They have sadly changed their views. But it might be a good punctuation at the present time.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Ed Fletcher

My dear Senator:

This situation in respect to these delegations has turned out to have more importance than any of us would have imagined. Some time it would be helpful if I could have a talk with you about it.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Ed Fletcher

San Diego, California

My dear Senator:

Many thanks for your note. The people of California have settled this question. I am advised that the Eastern press have accepted it entirely as a battle between myself and Mr. Hearst, and as Mr. Hearst chose that ground, I am satisfied to have it settled in that fashion.

Yours faithfully,

Senator Ed Fletcher

My dear Mr. Fletcher:

That was indeed a charming letter. The world gets worse all the time, but you and I just have to keep up the fight although we had a right to quit some time ago.

Yours faithfully,

My dear friend:

Many thanks for your letter of July 28th.

I was sorry indeed to have been called east on a new job. So there are no more joys for me for another year.

Yours faithfully,

My dear Ed:

I have your kind letter of September 30th and I want to thank you. You and I are close enough in age to warrant a search for escape from the daily grind.

With all good wishes,

Yours faithfully,

My dear Ed:

We will receive your unique table decoration with enthusiasm -- and use the toothpicks.

One of my constant "hants" is that I ought to be with you on the Klamath rather than in Washington, D. C. five days a week.

With kind regards,

Yours faithfully,

The Honorable Ed Fletcher

My dear Ed:

That was indeed a kindly note and I want to thank you for it. If you will relieve me of the most pestiferous job on earth -- trying to reduce this bureaucracy -- I will go fishing while you struggle with it! But my fate is to stay on this job.

With kind regards,

Yours faithfully,
