Mr. F.C. Lynch
1925 K Street
San Diego, Calif.

Dear Mr. Lynch:

Referring to our telephone conversation on Saturday morning, our records indicate that in the matter of the San Bernardino County Savings Bank of San Bernardino, California, Claim No. 572, of Adella M. Berry, in the amount of $604.66 was purchased by Mr. Frank Lynch of this city, on October 23, 1935 for the sum of $169.30

On Claim No. 825 in the amount of $3055.09 in the name of Mrs. A.G. Rose, this account was purchased on October 24, 1935 by Mr. Frank Lynch for the sum of $855.43.

Our records indicate you hold the original letters signed by Bernard G. Evans, Special Deputy, Superintendent of Banks, who is in charge of these matters.

If there is any further information you might desire, please feel free to call upon us.

Very truly yours,

M.N. WILSON
President

Mr. N.M. Wilson, President
U.S. National Bank
San Diego, California

My dear Mr. Wilson:

Answering yours of December 20th to Mr. Frank Lynch, I still ask for the following information:

I am anxious that you either write Mr. Lynch or myself as to whom the $169.50 was paid in the Adella M. Berry matter, to whom was the $855.43 paid in the A.G. Rose matter, and from whom do you hold a receipt for the money you paid out? Is there any way of having this money refunded to your knowledge?

Thanking you for this information by return mail,

Sincerely yours,

EF/jv
