

July 27, 1929.

Mr. A. V. Williams,
Leucadia, California.

My dear Sir:

Answering yours of the 26th, please let me have a statement from the other business men, as well as yourself, showing the indebtedness of the Sota family.

While I am not responsible in any way for their debts, yet I am anxious to cooperate with the business men in that territory. I would appreciate a statement from all the different people whom Sota owes by return mail so I can try and get immediate action for you.

Yours very truly,

Dear Mr. Fletcher:-

Your prompt and courteous reply to my missive of the 26th inst. was gratefully received, and I have made haste to compile a partial list of the indebtedness of the Sota's family in this community.
There are probably others that I have been unable to locate, but nevertheless the appended array is ample - and some to spare.

We all - unfortunates - appreciate your kindness in this matter, and trust that your well-known ability and acumen will extricate us from the financial disaster that would appear imminent.

Again thanking you for your interest in our affairs, and hoping to hear favorably from you soon, I beg to remain, Resp., etc.
A. V. Williams

Dear Mr. Williams:

Answering yours of the thirtieth will say I will take this matter up immediately.

I suggest that every one of you put them on a cash basis.

Yours very truly,
