Office - September 11, 1922

Colonel Fletcher,

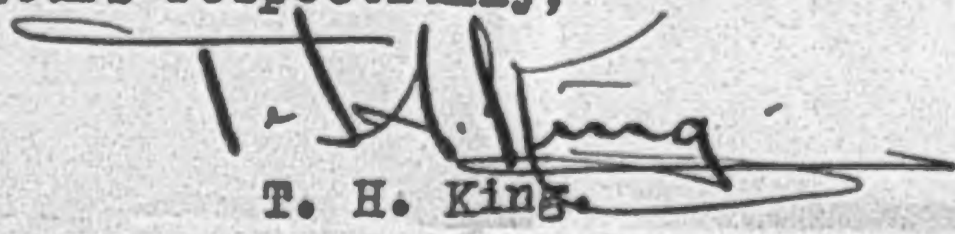

Dear Sir:

Subject: Stone Entries

Attached hereto is a map showing the location of each of the various Stone Entries with the name of each applicant. It will be necessary for each applicant to view his or her property and make the statement whether or not the property is valuable for its stone or timber. I presume these will be valuable principally for stone, however, will you be kind enough to observe whether this is true or whether the timber is the valuable product. If timber, an estimate of the stumpage must be made.

I have left with Miss Edwards all of the affidavits. She can go with the applicants to the Court House and have them make affidavit that they have viewed the property. One thing is absolutely essential--these affidavits must be made before County Clerk McLees himself, personally. No deputy can take his place for this particular work.

Yours respectfully,

T. H. King
