

Calendar Announcement, UCSD graduate student Paivikke Nykter to present violin recital with pianist Howard Wells on November 12th

November 9, 1988

Contact: Alixandra Williams, 534-3120

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, SAN DIEGO CALENDAR ANNOUNCEMENT

Paivikke Nykter, a graduate student in the Department of Music at the University of California, San Diego, will present a violin recital with pianist Howard Wells at 8 p.m. Saturday, November 12, in the Mandeville Center, Room B210. Nykter is a student of the acclaimed violinist and UCSD professor of music Janos Negyesy. Her program will include works by Mozart, Prokofiev, Bartok and Brahms. From Finland, Nykter played principal violin for the Helsinki Philharmonic and is the founding member of the Finnish new music ensemble, AVANTI. She is currently preparing for the Gaudeamus Competition to be held in Rotterdam, Holland, in February. Gaudeamus is the foremost new music competition in the world.

(November 9, 1988)