

Contrabass soloist Turetzky to perform Sept. 28 at UCSD

September 11, 1995

Media Contact: Jan Jennings, 534-8687

CONTRABASS SOLOIST TURETZKY TO PERFORM SEPT. 28 AT UCSD

A concert featuring renowned contrabass soloist Bertram Turetzky will be held at 8 p.m. Sept. 28 in Recital Hall of Mandeville Center at the University of California, San Diego.

Hailed as a virtuoso of a caliber unsurpassed by any other practitioner of the contrabass today, Turetzky will perform a number of pieces which have been composed specifically for him. They include "Cinque Frammenti" by Donald Martino, "Primal Balances" by Portuguese composer Richard Felciano, and "That Other Shore" by Canadian composer Donald Steven.

The performance of "That Other Shore" will feature Turetzky on contrabass, accompanied by six UCSD contrabassists and six UCSD cellists; Philip Larson, conductor.

General admission is $7; admission for senior citizens and UCSD staff, faculty, and students is $5.

(September 11, 1995)