

UCSD Humanities Lecture Series, "The Shattered Visage: Paradigms of Disunity in Contemporary Humanistic Studies" by Paul Cantor on Feb. 24

February 16, 1995

Contact: Frantisek Deak, Dean, UCSD Division of Arts and Humanities, 619/534-1024 or Alixandra Williams, 534-0361

UCSD CALENDAR ANNOUNCEMENT

Paul Cantor, Professor of English at the University of Virginia, will deliver a public lecture in the UCSD Humanities Lecture Series at 4 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 24, in the San Francisco-Santa Cruz Room of the Price Center at the University of California, San Diego. The title of his lecture, which concerns the current state of the humanities in American universities, is "The Shattered Visage: Paradigms of Disunity in Contemporary Humanistic Studies." Cantor is an internationally known scholar of Shakespeare, romantic literature, and social and economic themes in literature. His visit is sponsored by the UCSD Humanities Group and the Dean of Arts and Humanities. For information call 534-1024. This lecture is free and open to the public.

(February 16, 1995)