

Feb 19, 2015

Photo by Erik Jepsen/UC San Diego Publications

Help Showcase UC San Diego to 25,000 Newly Admitted Students and Families

Triton Days offer an opportunity to showcase UC San Diego as a student-centered, research-focused, service-oriented public university to an estimated 25,000 newly admitted students and their families. For many, Triton Day or Transfer Triton Day will be their first opportunity to experience UC San Diego—our sprawling grounds and ocean views, dynamic campus community and expansive research, and collaborative opportunities.

Saturday, April 4: Triton Day for admitted freshman students

Saturday, May 9: Transfer Triton Day for admitted transfer students

We need the campus community's partnership to ensure that our guests are welcomed, informed and engaged. Join us by staffing a booth, leading a tour, presenting an open house, entertaining our visitors or being a volunteer ambassador:

Interest sign up

If your academic department, student organization, administrative or academic support area will be participating in a booth, tour, open house or performance for Triton Day and/or Transfer Triton Day, complete the Interest Sign Up form. In late February, the full online registration site will be active and those who pre-register will be notified via email to complete their registration. You must complete this pre-registration step to access the registration site.

Volunteers needed

Hundreds of volunteers will be needed to make Triton Day and Transfer Triton Day successful. Visit the Volunteer 50 website to learn how you can participate.

If you have any questions about participating in Triton Days events, visit our webpage or contact Amanda Kalal.

Keep up with campus news by subscribing to This Week @ UC San Diego