

Chancellor Galbraith to speak in Kentucky

April 12, 1967

The History Department of the University of Kentucky has invited Chancellor John S. Galbraith of the University of California, San Diego to the Lexington campus Friday evening, April 14 as a Blazer lecturer.

Dr. Galbraith, who is also a professor of history at UCSD, will speak on "Some Reflections on the Profession of History." Approximately 200 students, faculty and townspeople are expected to attend the lecture.