SECTION 5: MODE OF PLAY

Object 1. The object of the game shall be to ground the ball in the opponent's in-goal to score tries (see Section 6) and to kick the ball over the opponent's cross-bar to score goals (see Section 6).

Start of Play 2. The captains of the two teams shall loss for choice of ends in the presence of the referee.

The team of the captain losing the toss shall kick-off to start the game.

Mode of Play 3. Once play has started any player who is on-side or not out of play can run with the ball, kick it in any direction and throw or knock it in any direction other than towards his opponent's dead ball-line (See Section 10 for Knock-on and Forward Pass).

Tackling 4. A player who during play is holding the ball may be tackled by an opposing player or players in orderly to prevent him from running with the ball or from kicking or passing it to one of his own team. (Section 11 for Tackle).

Obstruction 5. A player who is not holding the ball shall not be tackled or obstructed. (See Section 15).

NOTES

Shoulder Charge 5. If two players are running side by side near to and towards the ball it is permissible for one to charge the other with the shoulder.

DOWN TO BASICS

by IVAN RAVU
Rugby League National Coaching Director

KNOW THE RULES

COACHES and player must know the rules but more so for the players so they can use them to their advantage on the field when ever necessary and in situation such as:

- If your team knocked the ball forward, a player in your team in an on-side position should make every attempt to dive on the loose ball to complete the knock-on instead of allowing the opponent to gain possession. In this situation the referee will allow advantage to the non-offending team to play on if they gain possession, but if they don't then the referee will call for a scrum where the ball was knocked forward. The non-offending team will have the loose head and the put-in. The advantage your team might have if one of your players dived on the loose ball in the 50/50% chance of winning the scrum if the ball is fed in the centre of the scrum where it should be.

Therefore if you knock the ball forward always dive on it.

- If you are in an off-side position which is in front of the player who is in possession or last in possession when the ball is knocked forward, you should not play at it, i.e. pick it up or kick the ball, as soon as you make contact with the ball the referee will penalise you for playing at the ball from an off-side position. Having a 50/50 per cent chance of gaining possession from scrum is better than giving away a penalty.

Skill

Receiving a Pass

Prepare to receive the ball with arms close to the body. Always use both hands in receiving and keep the eyes on the ball.

Kam bungim ... TERRY LAMB

A 'DOG'S LIFE!

Lamb chases a second helping

AS Terry Lamb sat down over lunch at his favourite Chinese restaurant, he admitted that life after Canterbury terrifies him.

He disguised his fear well, sporting a grin as large as the Sydney Harbour Bridge. He'd just walked off Bankstown golf course after taking the Bulldogs' brains-trust – coach Chris Anderson and conditioner Steve Folkes – to the cleaners.

"It's a regular thing these days," said Lamb, still grinning. "Playing golf that is, not winning."

"We head to the course most Wednesday mornings and play for a few dollars."

As he perused the menu, Lamb explained the golf course often becomes the site of weekend post mortems and the place where the Bulldogs start planning for the next match.

Even when he relaxes, Lamb's world is still very much about football.

"It's a laid back atmosphere," explained Lamb. "We joke, we muck around, but at the same time we come up with a few plans on ways to improve."

"It's also a good way to pick up a few dollars if you're playing well."

So how was Lamb swinging?

"Too many times . . . that's the problem most weeks," Lamb replied.

No need to read the menu, Lamb is a regular at the Jade Peacock Restaurant, Bankstown.

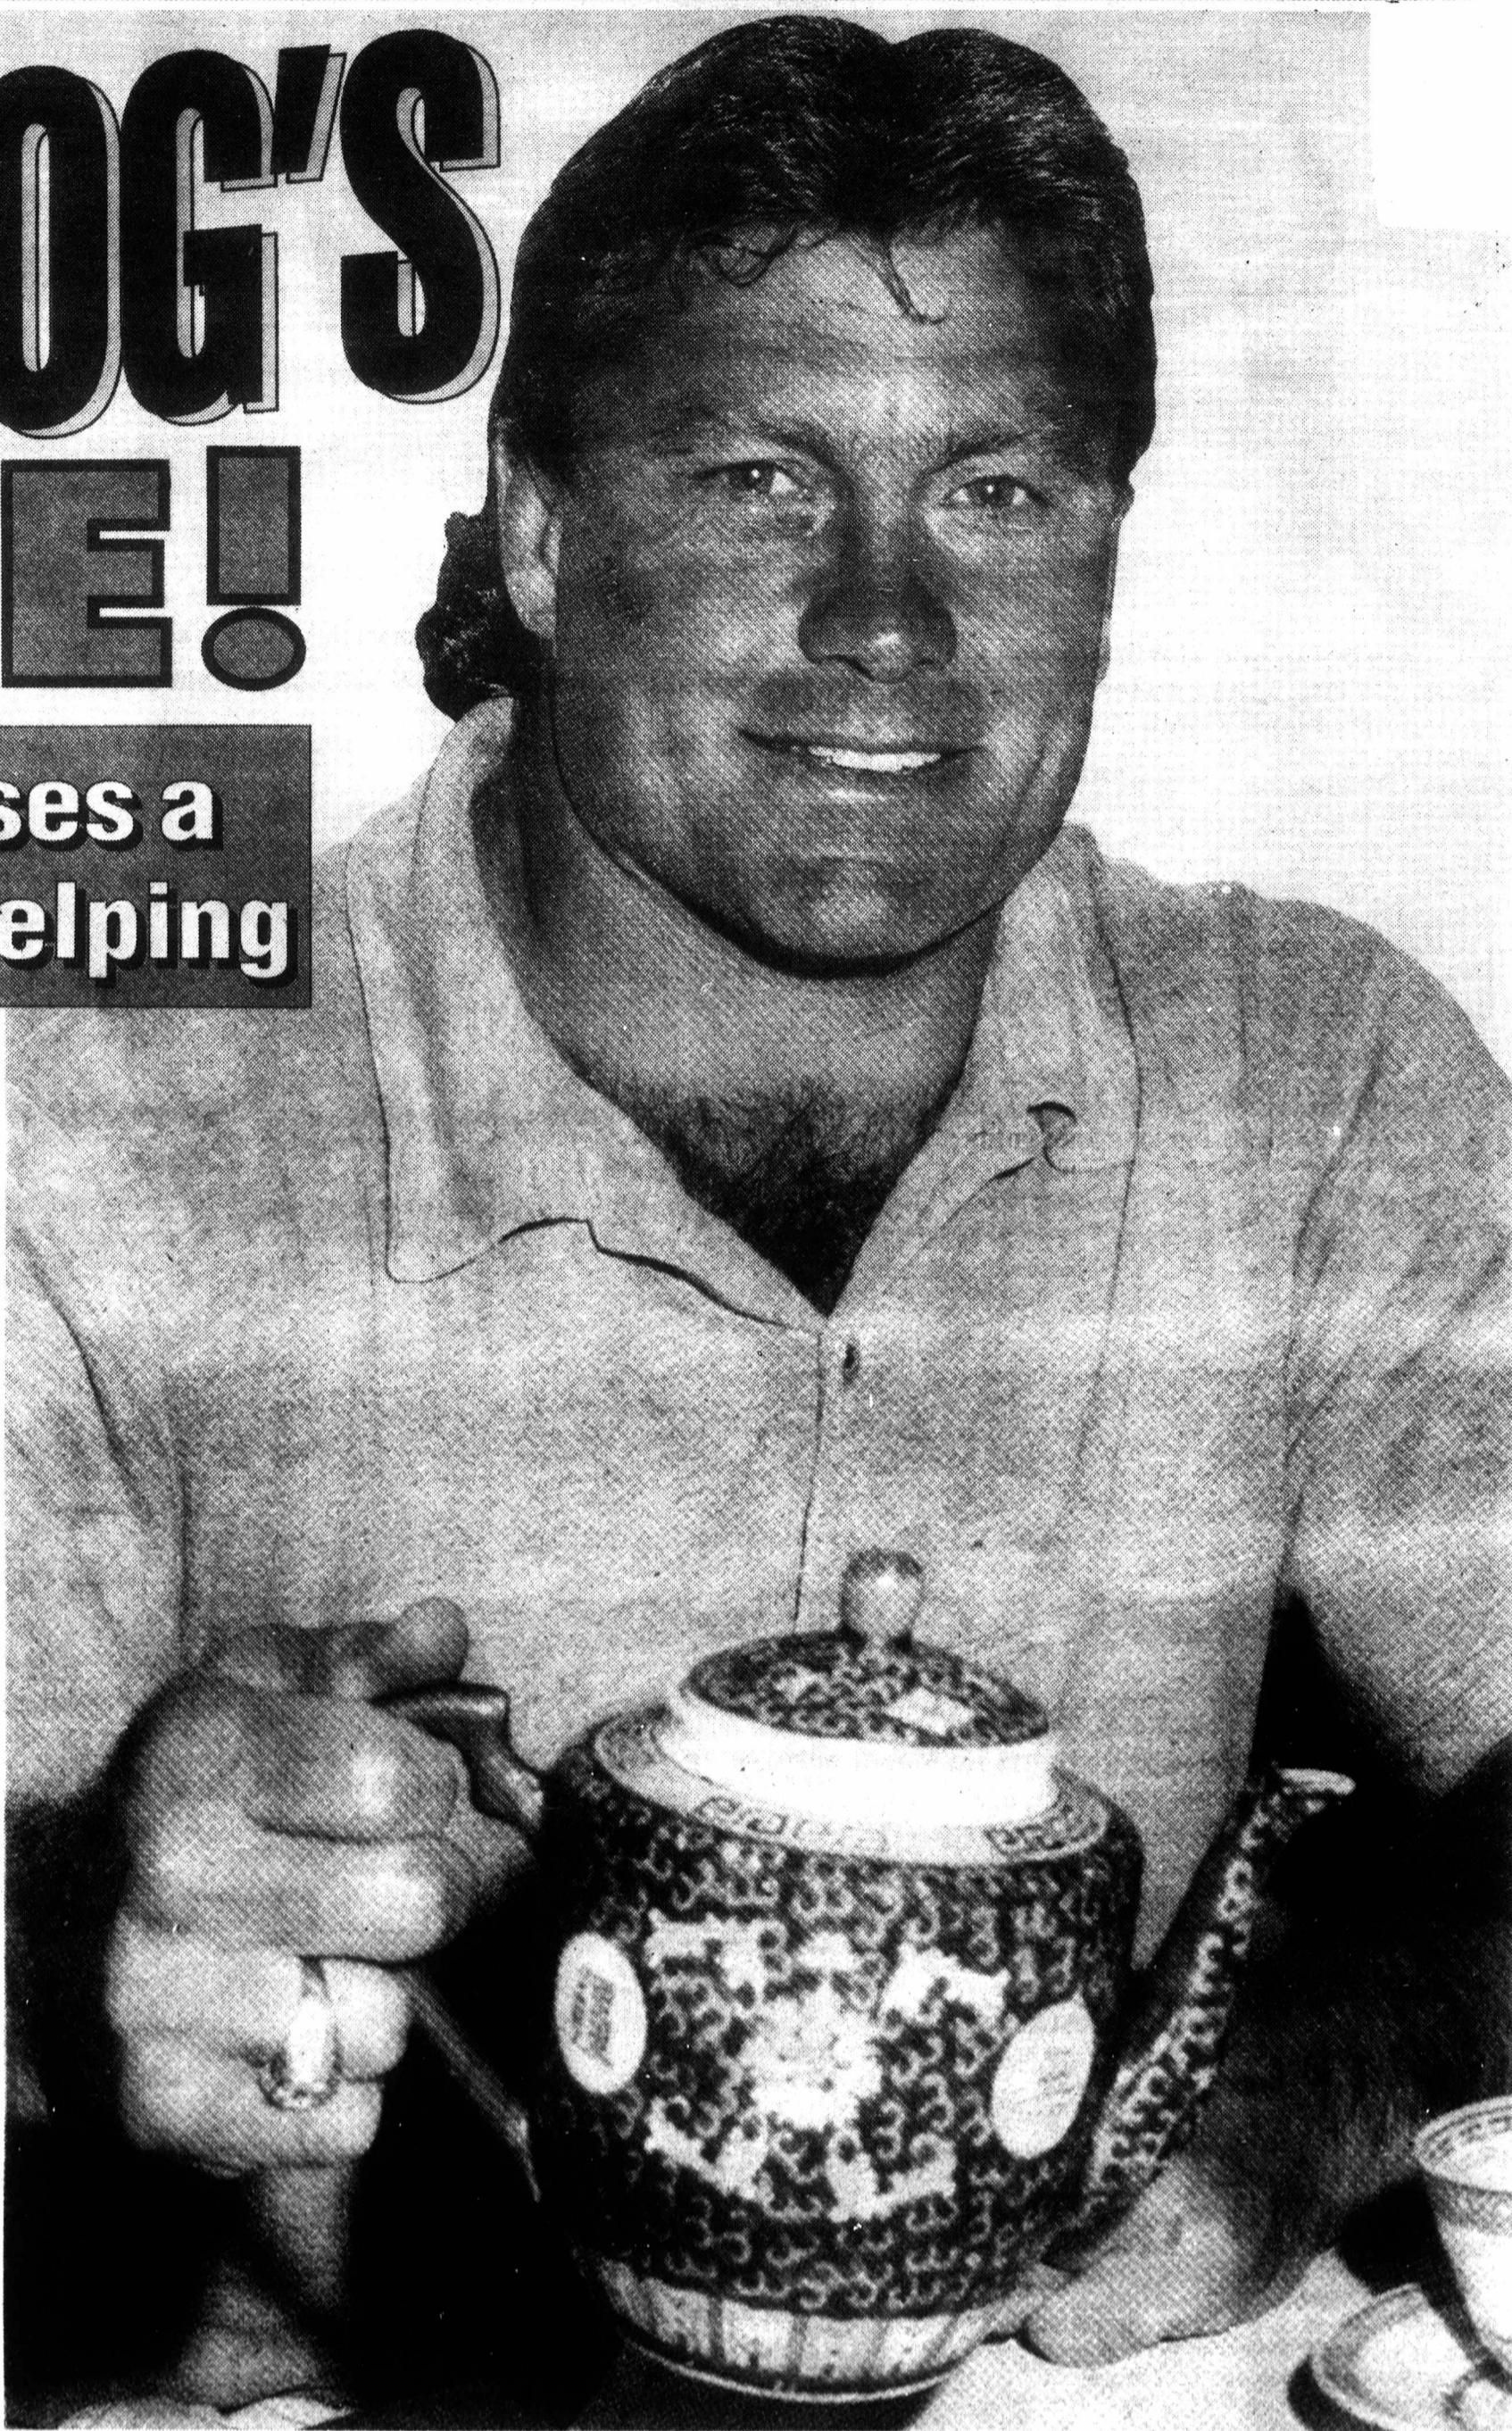

"A mixed entree, prawns in blackbean sauce served in a bamboo basket, BBQ chicken in a foil and a large fried rice should see us through," Lamb said.

"Bullfrog" (Canterbury chief executive Peter Moore) got me onto this place.

"The guy (Moore) could run for mayor of Bankstown and win in a landslide," Lamb offered.

"Fans ask what is going to happen when I decide to hang up my boots, but I'd be more worried about what will happen when 'Bullfrog' calls it a day."

"Bullfrog means a lot more to Canterbury bury than I ever will."

Now the burning issue: When is Lamb going to retire?

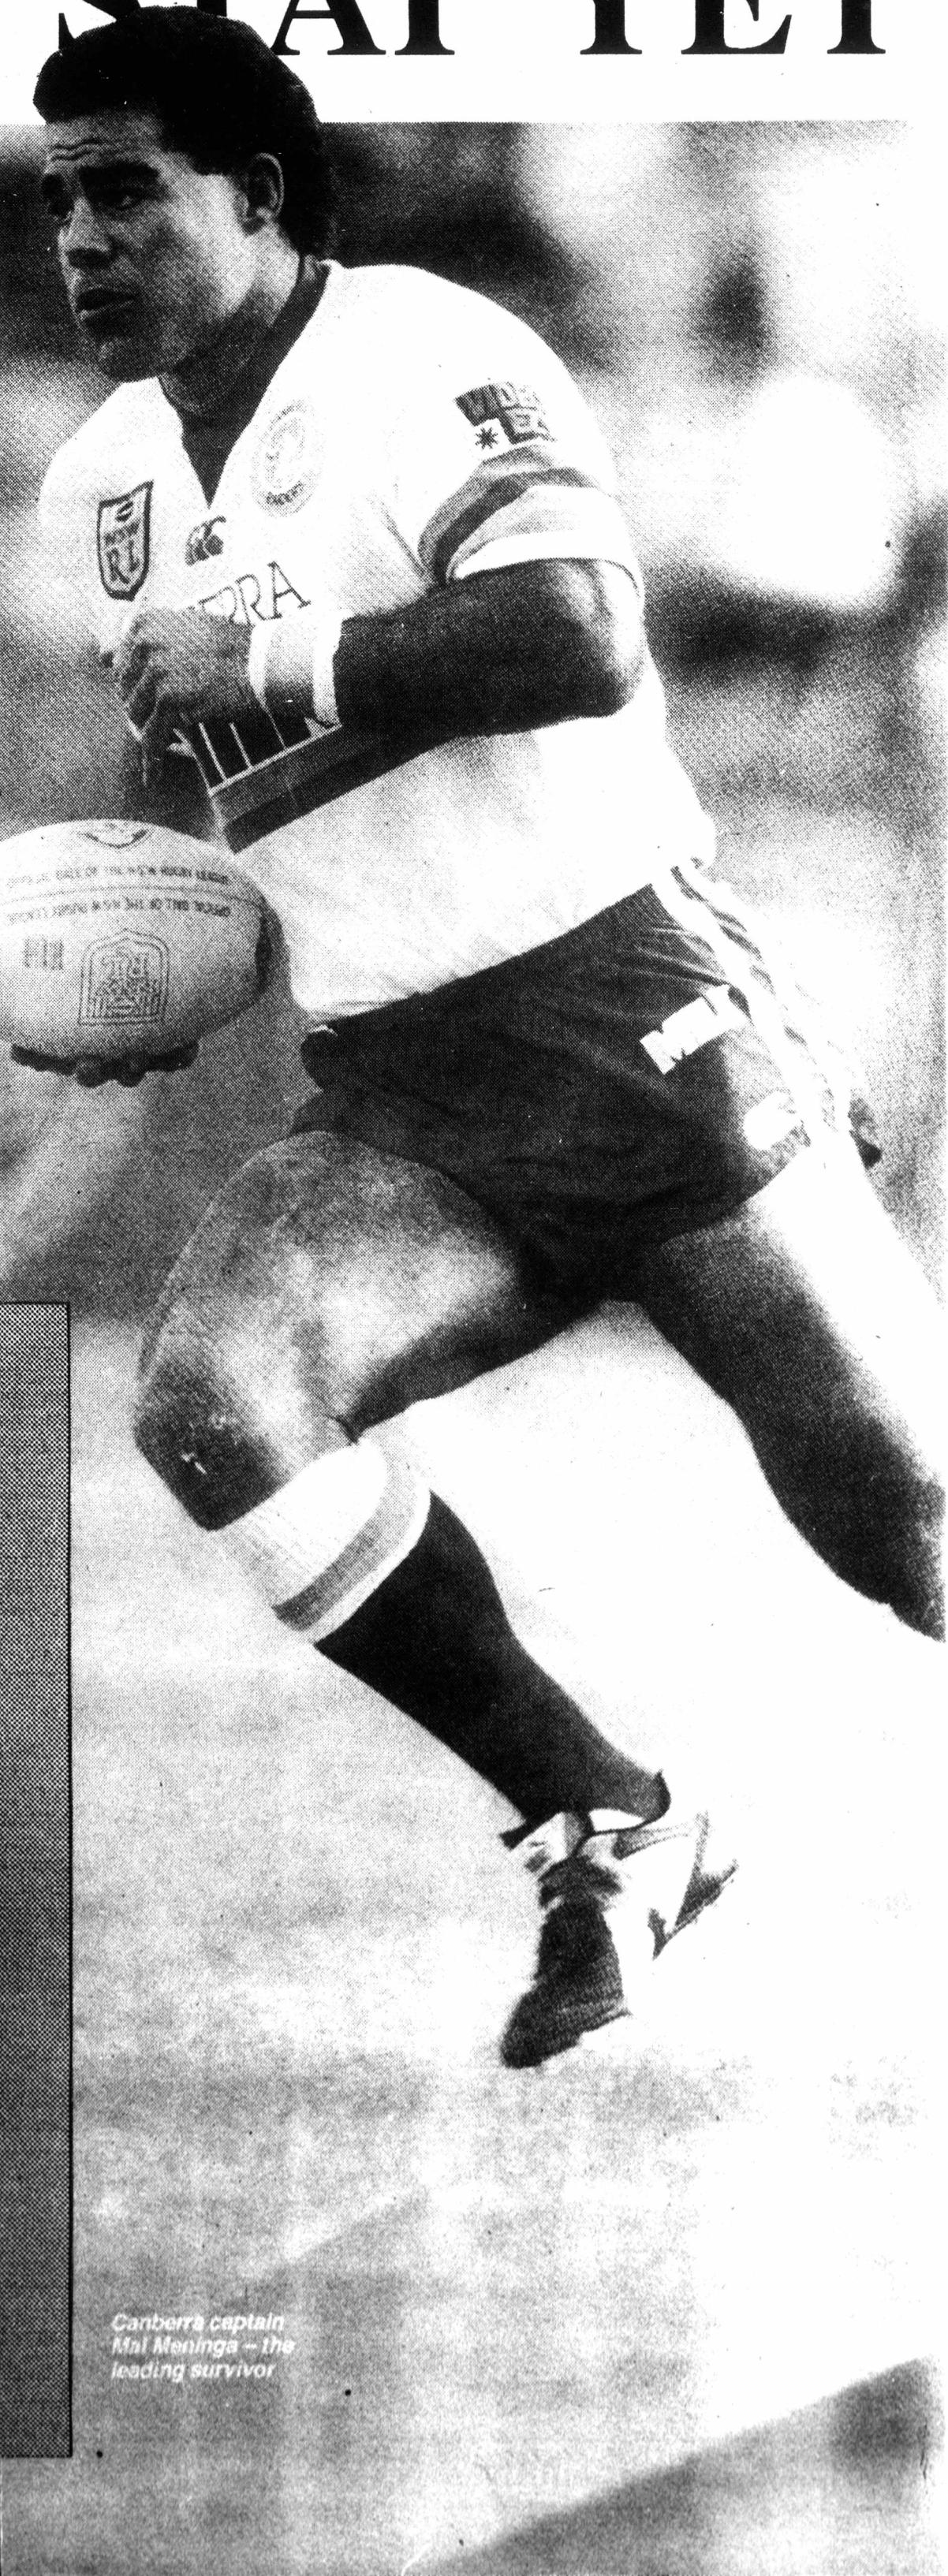

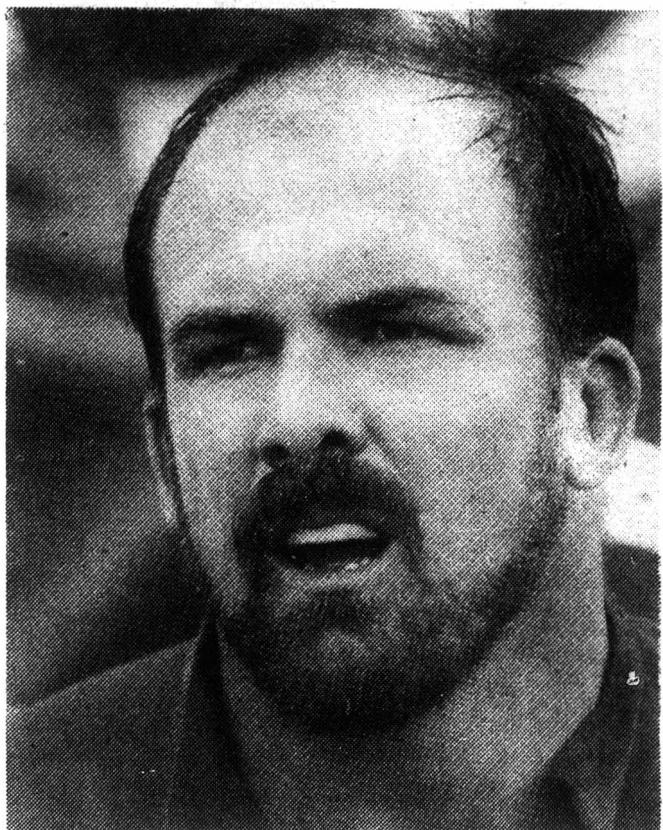

"It's my testimonial year, which usually means you're at the end, but I'm sticking with the attitude that I'll be around again next year. I'll just see what happens around late September," said Lamb, with a glint in his eye.

A Bulldog grand final victory could be all the motivation he needs to settle back into the good life, looking after his wife and kids and cheering the Bulldogs on from the sideline.
