

COMPLAINT

NAME: [REDACTED] [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
San Diego, Ca 92103

DATE: January 27, 2000

TIME: 1:30 AM - 2:00 AM

LOCATION: parking lot of Marisol Bar
Main St., Chula Vista

WITNESS: [REDACTED]

LEA: CVPD

OFFICERS: 1 Blk Male officer who inflicted beating and 3 other patrol cars including canine unit.

COMPLAINT:

Mr. [REDACTED] was drinking in his car with his friend Mr. [REDACTED] in the parking lot of Marisol Bar in Chula Vista, when a CVPD patrol car pulled up. The patrol car apparently called for back up, because within minutes 3 other units pulled into the parking lot. The officer from the first unit came up to Mr. [REDACTED] car and ordered him out of the car and placed him in his patrol car. The officer then wrote Mr. [REDACTED] a ticket and told him to sign it. Mr. [REDACTED] refused to sign the ticket for fear of losing his car. The officer then pulled Mr. [REDACTED] from the patrol car and grabbed him by the shirt and threw him to the ground. At this point Mr. [REDACTED] was still not handcuffed. The officer then put his foot on Mr. [REDACTED] chest and ordered the canine unit to turn the police dog loose and attack Mr. [REDACTED]. The dog attacked Mr. [REDACTED] with such ferocity that the police would not call the dog off even though Mr. [REDACTED] was not resisting. The officer who knocked Mr. [REDACTED] to the ground kicked him all over his body while the dog was biting him. The police would not call off the dog until Mr. [REDACTED] put his hands behind his back so they could handcuff him, but this was difficult to do since one officer was kicking him and the dog was biting him. Mr. [REDACTED] was arrested and first taken to Sharp hospital in Chula Vista then to the downtown jail.
