

@ god's right and to draw further on you the 24th inst. in favour of Jas Tindal at @ god's £ 633.15. 11^d for the pay^t of this year, which we have accompanied by an open letter with our sentiments on this discreditable business and appeal to your own Conscience for the fate of these bills and Consideration of the Consequences —

I am — Sir Your m^o. ob^o. serv^t.

W^m Brown

Hugh H: Hall Esq^r

6th July 1779
merc^y wth

Sir

Hanover Jan^y: 30th July 1779

I am now under the disagreeable necessity of opening a Correspondence which from the Gentleman like mode you adopted at the close of my Attorney -ship, for you in this Island, you certainly wish'd to avoid — I am extremely astonish'd to find that your accounts made up to the 4th October 1777 and deliver'd to your succeeding Attorneys have never reach'd you, notwithstanding the repeated assurances of Mr. Watts that they were forwarded; I have therefore in order to avoid accidents and to prevent such excuses in future transmitted two Copies by diff^t ships in this fleet to my friend Jas. Kerr Esq^r who on receipt thereof will furnish you with one of them and when you have looked them over and observe the balance that was there in my favour, you will be able to judge with what propriety you dishonoured the two Pactory bills of mine that was returned under protest. — If your Attorney has not forwarded your accounts it is not my fault, I did my duty by furnishing them with them. You have shown a lesson to Attorneys how to conduct themselves when giving up charge and I am much mistaken if your present Atty do not reap a benefit by it.

I however still trust that upon the examination of the account that you will settle the balance of £329.1.

It is due to me the 1st August with ~~it~~ Mr. Kerr for which I have drawn on you in his favour, if you do not, you will only subject me to the necessity of obtaining in a Court of Justice, what would be more for the honour of my Old Constituents to settle in an amicable manner

Finding from repeated application to your Attorneys Mr. Scott and I can get no relief from our security to Findlater nor recd. for our dis-honoured bill of last year, drawn on you on that account, we have been obliged to renew the bill £300.16.
It with all charges amount now to £343.19.. 2
