Loc: Border - to Cacho James

name me and [redacted] were stopped on the way to work. An Am. B/P. asked us where we were going. We said to work at Cacho. He got mad and said "That SOB." and got our hats and threw them on the ground and stamped them. He took our food, ate some of it and threw away the rest. He took us to a bodega that was already full of other farm workers. He pushed the other ~~to~~ into the back of the bodega. When it was my turn, I told him it was already full. He kicked me until I fell on top of the others. We were all on top of each other and it was hot. He forced us over the mesa - speeding, hitting bumps and throwing us around. We went from one end of the mesa to the other. We spent 2 hours like this. They then took us to a stay shop. We were given food and signed papers. We were then taken [redacted] at S. Y.

Details: Particulares: Me and three others were stopped on the way to work. An American Border Patrol officer asked us where we were going. We said to work at Cacho's. He got mad and said, "That son of a bitch". He got our hats and threw them on the ground and stomped on them. He took our food and ate some of it and threw away the rest. He took us to a blazer that was already full with other men. He pushed the other two that were with me into the back of the blazer. When it was my turn, I told him it was already full he kicked me until I fell on top of the others. We were all on top of each other, and it was very hot. He raced all over the mesa, speeding, hitting bumps and throwing us around. We spent two hours like this. They then took us to Otay station, where we were forced to sign papers. From there we were taken to the line and released.
