

La Jolla Civic & University Chorus holds rehearsals

September 23, 1968

Rehearsals of the La Jolla Civic and University Chorus will begin at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, October 1, at the Rehearsal Hall, Matthews Campus, University of California, San Diego.

This season will be the second year of the affiliation between the University and the La Jolla Civic Orchestra and Chorus. The chorus will sing in a Christmas program with the assistance of the orchestra and also in a festival of Mexican music to honor the 200th anniversary of San Diego, with a spring choral program planned for next year.

Thomas Neel, associate professor of music at UCSD, will be conducting. Interested persons in the San Diego area are invited to come and sing on Tuesday, October 1.

Auditions will be held at a later date.
