

Media Advisory - Welcome Week activities, orientation, films, lectures, jogs, parties, picnics and excursions

September 13, 1978

MEDIA ADVISORY

SUBJECT: Welcome Week activities, eight days of University of California, San Diego orientation for incoming freshmen and other new students. Films, lectures, three all-campus early-morning jogs, many collective and individual college parties, picnics and excursions.

DATES AND TIMES: Various (see below)

CONTACT: Barbara Ann Firger, Public Information Office, 452-3120, OR any of the following: Judy Green, Muir College, 452-3587; Yolanda Garcia, 452-3490; Dean's Office, Third College, 452-4391; Julie Gordon, Warren College, 452-4355.

HIGHLIGHTS: Sunday, Sept. 17

7 p.m. "The Grand Unveiling," Center for the People, Third College campus, Cafeteria Building lower level. Artist Eduardo Gonzalez (recent UC San Diego graduate) will discuss his mural.

Monday, Sept. 18

8 a.m. All-campus jog (also Wednesday and Friday). Gym steps. Three separate jogs (one-, three- and five-mile routes) for the beginning to serious runner, each led by a Recreation Dept. staff member. The jogs are also intended to acquaint students with the UC San Diego campus.

Noon Fiesta, Third College Quadrangle. Sponsored by the college and MEChA. Open to all. Mexican lunch ($.75 apiece) and mariachis.

9 p.m. "Circle of Light Ceremony," Third College Quad. "An expression of unity and brotherhood at Third." College activity but open to all.

Wednesday, Sept. 20

8 a.m. All-campus jog. (see Monday, Sept. 18.)

Sept. 20 cont.

3 p.m. "Cloning and Other Issues of Scientific Ethics," Student Center North Conference Room. A faculty panel discussion moderated by Warren College Provost Lea Rudee, with panel members Dr. Sanford Lakoff, chairman, Department of Political Science; Dr. Avrum Stroll, professor of philosophy; Dr. Meredith Somero, lecturer in biology, and Dr. Oliver W. Jones, professor of pediatrics, School of Medicine.

Thursday, Sept. 21

Noon Bizarre Bazaar, Student Center. Booths and events introducing campus organizations and services. Food, entertainment.

8 p.m. Sonor. Mandeville Recital Hall. Program featuring UC San Diego's contemporary music ensemble.

8:30 p.m. Sam Hinton in a concert of folk music. Revelle Cafeteria. Hinton, noted folklorist, singer and storyteller, will be featured in a one-man concert open to all.

Friday, Sept. 22

8 a.m. All-campus jog (see Monday, Sept. 18 and Wednesday, Sept. 20)

Midday VARIOUS OUTDOOR EVENTS. PICTURE POSSIBILITIES.

11 a.m. Mini-Olympics, Third College Lawn. Egg toss, tug-of-war, bubble-gum blowing contest.

11 a.m. Volleyball games with the chancellor and the Muir College provost, dean and other administrators. Lower Muir Commons. Followed by college picnic, Muir Quadrangle.

Noon Revelle College Barbecue and Outdoor Concert. Revelle Plaza. Free.

Noon A day on the Green. Warren College Quadrangle. Free picnic.

Square dancing, earth ball, frisbee, softball. "The UCSD Underground," a tour through the "campus catacombs." Water balloon toss. Various times. Call for more information.

6 p.m. Los Angeles Lakers intra-squad scrimmage. Main Gymnasium. Practice session. NOTE TO PRESS: Although this evening session is an open one, we anticipate filling our gym (which holds about 4,000) with freshman attending Welcome Week and with returning students, faculty and staff. We leave it to your discretion.

For information contact: Barbara Ann Firger, 452-3120

(September 13, 1978)