

Alumni & Friends make three awards to students for academic excellence

December 1, 1975

The Alumni & Friends, UC San Diego, have made three $250 Awards for Academic Excellence to continuing students at UC San Diego.

Barbara Anne Thornburgh, sophomore, Revelle College, of Spring Valley; Daniel Woodson Shaw, junior, Muir College, of La Mesa; and Andrea Sue Weisman, sophomore, Muir College, of Woodland Hills, are the first recipients of the awards since the founding of the Alumni & Friends in July, 1974. The alumni group's scholarship committee, organized last spring, selected the three students on the basis of high academic standing and interviews.

The funds, donated to the Alumni & Friends specifically for undergraduate awards, are matched by a Regents' grant to the newer UC campuses.

Vice President for Alumni & Friends scholarships is Mrs. Diane Medick Kelley, Revelle, 1969, of San Diego.
