

November 17, 1953

THE SPEECH FOR NOVEMBER 19, 1953
AT BRANDEIS, GENERAL EDUCATION S.

Vivisection

Science and Politics -- Watertight compartment

1930 -- Schacht Speech

Christmas Day, 1931 -- The Sky Line of New York

H. G. Wells -- The World Set Free

April, 1933 -- Sir William Beveridge

Fall of 1933 -- British Association -- Crossing Southampton Row

Joliet's Discovery

Spring of 1934 -- Strand Palace Hotel

Neutrons from Beryllium

Invitation to Oxford

Weizmann and Prodetzky

Meeting at Wardmann Park Hotel

What Would Have Happened If

Events in England Eden at Geneva -- Breach of the Locarno Pact

Governed By Fools

Favor to Europe -- Dinner with Dirac

1938 In March -- Letter to British Admiralty

January, 1939 -- Visit to Wigner

Letter to Joliet -- February 2nd

 no 7 speech draft to here*

I borrowed $2000.00

March 3, 1933 -- Fight For Secrecy

June, 1939 -- Graphite and Uranium

Letter From the Navy

Visit to Einstein

Union Carbon and Carbide -- S. W. Barrett

October 21, 1939 -- Meeting of Committee -- Wigner carries the day

All work at standstill until March, 1940

First Government contract in November, 1940 -- $40,000 to Columbia University

British come to our rescue

Reorganization December 2, 1942

March, 1945

Death of Roosevelt

Visit to Byrnes, Spartanburg, South Carolina, May 28, 1945

The frank report

Petition to the President

Petition reclassified

Stimson writes an article

The Scientist keeps silent

Trip to Washington with Condon

A. H. Compton visits Chicago

Meeting the Press

Back to Washington

The hearings are reopened

Bill gets no rule

Victory of doubtful value

Post-war confusion

Lack of leadership

What is the real issue?