

Media Advisory on Yosef Goell; visiting Israeli professor

October 4, 1976

MEDIA ADVISORY

STORY: Visiting political science professor from Hebrew University in Israel comments on U.S. foreign policy in the Middle East. WHO: Prof. Yosef Goell, political science department, Hebrew University. Currently on leave from the University serving as editorial writer and political columnist for the Jerusalem Post. WHEN: Friday, October 8. 1:30 p.m. WHERE: Political science conference room, 2550 Humanities-Library Building, Revelle College, University of California, San Diego. FURTHER INFORMATION: Contact Paul Lowenberg or Barbara Firger, UCSD Public Information Office, (714) 452-3120, or Sanford Lakoff, chairman, Political Science Department, 452-3548. COMMENTS: Prof. Goell will be on campus the afternoon of Friday, October 8 to lecture in a political science class. He will be available to meet with representatives of the media for an hour or so before his lecture. Prof. Goell is an American by birth who has lived in Israel since 1948. He is currently doing research on Arab-Jewish relations in Israel, and is writing a book on alternative solutions to the Palestinian problem. (October 4, 1976)

CURRICULUM VITAE DR. YOSEF GOELL

Address: 505/6 French Hill; Jerusalem, Israel Tel: 02-817128

Department of Political Science Hebrew University; Jerusalem, Israel

Current Position

On leave from the Political Science Department at Hebrew University and is editorial writer and political columnist for the Jerusalem Post in Israel.

Guest Scholar at the Brookings Institution in Washington, D.C. beginning in September 1976.

Personal History

Born September 12, 1928 in New York City; has lived in Israel since 1948. Married, with three children, ages 26, 23 and 19.

Education

Hebrew Teachers Seminary, Yeshiva University, New York City; 1942-46. City College of New York; 1945-47. Hebrew University of Jerusalem; 1957-60; 1965-67; B.A. in Political Science, Sociology and Economics; 1966; M.A. in Political Science; 1967 Columbia University, New York City; 1967-70; Ph.D. in Political Science; 1971.

Dissertation Title: A Comparative Study of Three Modernized Bi-national States: Canada, Belgium, White South Africa.

University Teaching

1969-70 - Instructor in Political Science, Fordham University, New York.

1970-71 - Instructor at Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

1970-72 - Lecturer in Political Science at Bar-Ilan University, Israel.

1971-75 - Lecturer in Political Science at Hebrew University, Jerusalem.

1972-75 - Lecturer in English at School for Overseas Students at Hebrew University in Jerusalem.

University Courses Taught

Political Modernization: with emphasis on nationalism, nationalist movements, nationalist and ethnic group politics, problems of bi-national states.

Middle East Government and Politics: with emphasis on political and social modernization.

Israel Society and Politics: with emphasis on history, social development, internal politics, ethnic relations and Israel-Arab relations.

Book in Progress - for the Van Leer Institute, Jerusalem;

Alternative Solutions to the Palestinian Problem

Research

Fellow of Eshkol Institute for Political and Social Research; 1972-75. Current research project: The Israel government's minorities policy; Arab-Jewish relations in Israel; The status of the Arabic language in Israel.

Previous Occupational Background

Member of kibbutz, 1948-57; served as General Secretary, Financial Secretary, member of Upper Galilee Regional Council Government, 1954-57.

Member of editorial board of the Jerusalem Post (English language daily), 1957-67; News Editor, 1959-61; Economic Correspondent, 1961-64; Political and Parliamentary Correspondent, 1964-67; U.N. Correspondent in New York in 1967.

U.N. and U.S. Correspondent in New York and Washington, D.C. for Wariv (Hebrew language daily) from 1967-70.

Lecture Topics

- 1) Israel's Arab Minority and Israel's Minorities Policy.
- 2) The Israeli Political System and Current Political Challenges.
- 3) The Palestinians.
- 4) Religious-Secular Tensions in Israel.

5) Socieconomic Problems in Israel.

6) An Assessment of Israel's Foreign Policy.

7) Understanding the Lebanese Crisis.

(October 4, 1976)