

Media advisory on Revelle Convocation

April 22, 1977

SUBJECT: The three-day Revelle College Convocation on education will feature a formal academic procession of faculty, university officers and guests and the installation of Dr. June Tapp as provost of Revelle College.

PLACE: Revelle College Plaza

TIME: 10 a.m. Saturday, April 30

CONTACT: Paul W. West, Public Information Office, 452-3120

REMARKS: The Revelle College Convocation, titled "Renaissance Revisited," is scheduled Friday evening through Sunday noon, April 29 and 30 and May 1, on the Revelle College campus. Four major addresses and several faculty-led discussions are planned. In addition, the ceremonies planned for Saturday morning will feature an academic procession led by a marshal] and with participants in cap and gown, the formal installation of June Tapp as Revelle College provost by Dr. David Saxon, president of the University of California, and a major address by Edward Levi, former U.S. Attorney General and former president of the University of Chicago. Others taking part in the ceremony on Saturday are Dr. William McElroy, UC San Diego chancellor; Deborah Mazzanti, chairman of the UC San Diego Board of Overseers; Ellen Potter, Revelle College senior, and Sherley Anne Williams, associate professor of literature.

(April 22, 1977)