

Dougan to speak at UCSD for Friends of Library

May 12, 1966

Robert O. Dougan, well-known British author and librarian of the Henry E. Huntington Library, San Marino, will speak on "Life with Rare Books" at the University of California, San Diego campus May 17.

Sponsored by Friends of the UCSD Library, Dougan will speak at 8:00 p.m. in the auditorium of the Humanities-Library Building.

Dougan studied at University College, London. He held library posts at the Royal Historical Society, London; Sandeman Public Library, Perth; and Trinity College, Dublin, prior to his appointment at Huntington Library.

(5/12/66)