

Herb Caen, Jack Smith and Neil Morgan to speak, "An Evening with California's Best-Known Columnists"

May 17, 1979

Three writers who have chronicled the triumphs and foibles of their fellow Californians for more than two decades will share their distinctive perspectives with each other and with the public at "An Evening with California's Best-Known Columnists," scheduled at 7:30 p.m. Friday, May 25, in the Mandeville Auditorium.

Herb Caen of The San Francisco Chronicle, Jack Smith of The Los Angeles Times and Neil Morgan of The San Diego Evening Tribune will discuss journalism, politics, society and the California culture in a program sponsored by the City Club, San Diego Inside newsletter and the UC San Diego University Events Office.

Admission to the forum is $5 for the general public and $2 for students and senior citizens. Tickets can be purchased at the UCSD Central Box Office, 452-4559.
