West Boxford Sept 19th 1870

Mr, Epheriam Masse,

Dear Cousin,

I received the letter you send me in about seven days ago date. I will trouble you with another, we are going to send Amos out a box of shirts and other things. I dont want him to know any thing about it untill it arrives at your place. I think we shall send it the second week in Oct by express, and if you will take the charge of it I will be greatly obliged to you, it may not be safe to send it to him, when it arrives you will please write to him and inform him of it.

I wish he was married (if he is not) and settled down as you are, I should feel easy about him. It seems if he had a small place and worked at his trade, he might get a living I am afraid he is too anxious to get rich.

Will you please write me as soon as the box arrives at your place, for I shall feel anxious about it until I hear.
I wish you could persuade Amos to come here and make a visit.

I hope before another year passes we shall see you and Amos with your wife in old Massachusetts. my love to Mrs Ware) Respectfully Judith W. Kimball.

Mr. Ephraim W. Morse,

Dear Cousin

I wrote you about a week ago, thinking that may not reach you, I will write another, saying that we intend to send a box out to Amos about the middle of Oct, will you please take charge of it untill Amos comes to your place, I had rather it would not be sent to him if he is in the Mine. Will you write to him when it arrives and let him know that there is something in it from Old Massachusetts.

I have not heard from him yet, I was glad to hear about him from you.

Has Amos had to give up his land and lost his labor on it. If he has I suppose he would not care to have me know it.

If you will write me as soon as the box arrives I will thank you, for I shall feel anxious to hear from it.

Your truly

Judith W. Kimball.
