Expanding the Queer Women of Color Narrative

LGBT Resource Center

Wednesday, May 27th, 2009 | 6:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Please join Maureen Garcia, the Anti-Racism Intern, for her last program of the quarter. For the program, she would like to expand upon her earlier Experience: the Queer Women of Color Narrative. This program will address the visibility of transwomen of color. Additionally, we will be putting together an art piece for the family room using the narratives collected for the past program and include new narratives from transwomen of color. Contact Maureen if you would like to submit a narrative or for general questions.

Have you ever felt silenced, angry, or fed up in your year in the life of friends living the Bohemian life in modern day East Village, New York City, 1989-1990. Among the group are our narrator, nerdy love-struck filmmaker Mark Cohen; the object of Mark's affection, his former girlfriend, Maureen Johnson; Maureen's Harvard-educated public interest lawyer and lesbian lover Joanne Jefferson; Mark's roommate, HIV-positive musician and former junkie, Roger Davis; Roger's new girlfriend, the HIV-positive drug addicted S&M dancer, Mimi Marquez; their former roommate, HIV-positive computer genius Tom Collins; Collins' HIV-positive drag queen street musician/lover Angel; and Benjamin Coffin III, a former member of the group who married for money and has since become their landlord and the opposite of everything they stand for. Shows how much changes or doesn't change in the 525,600 minutes that make up a year.

experiences at the Resource Center? This conscious and critical program will give you a chance to speak up on these issues in very healing ways. So often there is a tendency to only focus on the positive while putting a "band-aid" on the things that are painful. If you have been triggered by the overwhelming sense of whiteness, cisgender privilege, ableism, maleness, and/or many other critical issues in the space, this program is for you to speak up! We will challenge the silence around these issues in hopes to leave this space and this year more fulfilled. If you have any questions or concerns, please email Michelle.

Day of Decision - San Diego

When the CA Supreme Court announces their decision on Proposition 8, action must take place! We are calling you to join us for a rally in celebration or protest on the day of the decision. Protests will occur nationwide and our voices will be heard! We hope that we will come together in celebration, but must know that even in celebration we have many more battles to win and need to unite on the day of decision in one loud voice. ## Let's Talk About Marriage

Dear UC San Diego LGBT Community and our allies~

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. said, "The arc of the moral universe is long but it bends towards justice." I am feeling its long, long arc today. But I have hope for the future, and a justice that will come one day.

The California Supreme Court upheld Proposition 8. It appears that all of the couples who married in the window of opportunity will retain their rights and privileges of those marriages.

We will gather at 12 noon at the LGBT Resource Center on campus to reflect, to support each other and to remember our strength as a community.

This evening at 5pm, the entire San Diego LGBT community and our allies will gather at the corner of Laurel Street and 6th Avenue in Balboa Park and march downtown in a show of strength and solidarity. More information on that gathering can be accessed at <http://www.marriageequality.org>, <http://www.samealliance.com>, & <http://www.sdequalitynow.com>.

With much hope for the future,

Shaun Travers, Ed.D.

Rainbow Graduation Invitation and RSVP request

The Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Resource Center at the University of California, San Diego proudly announces the annual Rainbow Graduation and Induction Ceremony into the LGBT Alumni Chapter Saturday, June 6th, 2009 Four o' clock in the afternoon in The Great Hall at Eleanor Roosevelt College. Join the UC San Diego LGBT student, staff and faculty community as we come together at our annual celebration of leaders, scholarship recipients, volunteers, donors and graduates! Although most people do get dressed up for the event, it tends to be a queer little get together, with all the trappings of our community, so be yourself. Academic regalia has been worn by individuals in the past but is not required nor common (beyond the rainbow tassels which is provided for the graduates).

Please RSVP by June 1st, 2009 to Facebook, (858) 822-3493 or rainbow@ucsd.edu.

Resource Center. Under the guise of an Assistant Director, she continues to work there as a supportive ear, a social justice student/practitioner, and a participant in community-building. She came back to CBB as a part-time faculty member so that she can be inspired and remain hopeful. Jan's main issues with herself are increasing self-acceptance, permitting herself to be loved, and not letting guilt and shame overpower her. Jan aspires to be as committed to self-growth as she is to Battlestar Galactica.

Rainbow Graduation Student Speakers - Emmanuel Guerrero & Mike Moody

My name is Emmanuel Guerrero and I am a fourth year Biochemistry major at sixth college and have been involved at the LGBTRC for almost my entire time here at UCSD. I was also a principal member of the organization Queer People of Color for several of those years and I am now a RA at sixth college. I also knit and many individuals recognize me for that as well as being really nerdy and slightly socially awkward but in a good way (I hope....).

Howdy, I'm Mike and most people may remember me as the Library and Special Collections Intern for the past two years at the LGBT RC, meaning that I'm the nerd that knows where every book is, on what shelf, in which section... scary. People tell me that my loud rant-like sense of humor and honesty stands out (hopefully in a good way). Our community at the RC has made my education here so much richer, given me a place to call home, and allowed me to grow in so many ways. This place has been such an important resource and getting the chance to graduate amongst my peers/my community is such a treat.

Cross-Cultural Center, Comunidad Room

-- Thursday, June 4th, 2009 | 6:00PM - 8:00PM

The Campus Community Centers are hosting a dinner to recognize all of your hard work as activists in our community! We would like to honor you, and provide resources to help you continue your pursuit of social justice after graduation. Just because your years as an undergrad have come to an end doesn't mean your activism also has to end! Come hear from people who have kept involved in community work after graduating from UCSD - and share a toast of celebration.

Anti-Gay Vandalism in Our Community

Dear UC San Diego LGBT and ally community~

Earlier this week a member of our community had their car vandalized with anti-gay hate speech. The person reported the incident to the police and has been working closely with the many response and support mechanisms the University provides. Click here for the community advisory that is in the process of being posted on the campus police website, and distributed to the Mesa graduate student housing community.

It is possible that the car was targeted in this instance perhaps because of "Vote No on Prop 8" sticker and/or the rainbow sticker. This incident should heighten all of our awareness around responsibility and safety. UC San Diego has made commitments through the Principles of Community, non-discrimination policies and affirmative statements on diversity to create and sustain environments where incidents like this should rarely occur. When incidents do occur, the entire UC San Diego community has a responsibility to increase its sensitivity to the way people are targeted because of their identities, communities and perceived status. The UC San Diego community also has a responsibility to confront hate wherever it occurs on our campus.

Concurrently, those of us who are targeted must realistically consider what steps we should take when an incident like this has occurred. For some, that may mean increased vigilance around physical safety. For others, it means conscientiously choosing when and where to be alone, to be visible and to be silent around identities that are targeted.

If anything happens to you or your property that is similar in nature, please call Detective Garrett Williams at (858) 534-4359, or 911 and report it. Again, the community advisory is in the process of being posted on the campus police website, and distributed to the Mesa graduate student housing community.

Sincerely,

Shaun Travers, Ed.D.

The next book club will meet in the small living room to discuss Stiff: The Curious Lives of Human Cadavers, by Mary Roach. This book will be available at the UCSD Bookstore at a discount. The group is open to new members at all times and is for anyone who loves to read. Future meetings will be held on the second Tuesday of every month. For more information, please email Jessica Geipel or call (858) 822-1479.

WELCOME!

Welcome to the UC San Diego Lesbian Gay Bisexual Transgender Resource Center! This brochure serves as a resource for those who are seeking information about our services for the LGBT community and its allies at UC San Diego.

We invite you to stop by the Center, located in the new addition of the Original Student Center, to get a feel for our space and the services we provide for our students, staff, faculty, alumni and community. We can also be reached by phone at (858) 822-3493, by email at rainbow@ucsd.edu, and at lgbt.ucsd.edu — we look forward to getting to know you soon!

OUR MISSION

The LGBT Resource Center at UCSD is a diverse, open and public space for all members of the University community to explore issues relating to sexual and gender identities, practices and politics. It develops student leadership, builds workplace equity, promotes academic research, and provides resources. The center challenges existing definitions of variant genders and sexualities by engaging in community building on- and off-campus. This center sustains and develops visibility, sense of community, and knowledge of diverse queer people.

KEEP IN TOUCH!

The LGBT Resource Center is located on the top floor of the new building between the Mandeville Center and the Original Student Center.

The LGBT Resource Center is for all UCSD students, faculty, staff, and alumni. Our staff will help you find resources which might be of interest to you and provide you with a way to connect to the community. We strive to make the center an inviting place for all members of the campus community. Visit us to find out how you can become involved!

OUR SERVICES

Stop by and visit us — our staff would be happy to answer any questions you might have! We provide:

- ...a space where individuals can come and study, chat, access the web, and hang out.
- ...information and brochures on LGBT resources and events, as well as magazines and literature.
- ...the electronic LGBT Rainbow Newsletter, which is the best way to keep up with the latest news of the Center. Email rainbow@ucsd.edu and we can sign you up!
- ...the LGBT Speakers’ Bureau, which speaks to groups or organizations. Contact rainbow@ucsd.edu for more information.

OUR SPACE

The LGBT Resource Center occupies the top floor of the new building between the Original Student Center and Mandeville Center. Constructed in 2006 with an area of 2,600 square feet, the space was designed from the ground-up with the needs of the community in mind. The Center has public and private space, a large conference room, a small group meeting room, common kitchen, gender neutral restroom, and three offices.

The common room is a drop-in space to sit, read, and chat with friends or colleagues. Attached to the Common Room is our lending library available for browsing. Our multimedia lending library has media on a variety of topics related to sexual and gender identity. Laptop computers are available for check-out and use within our space. It is also connected to a common kitchen, complete with sink, refrigerator, toaster, microwave, and coffee pot. Drop by for a quick snack, or come over and bring your lunch.

Our conference room has a table and chairs, with plenty of space to sit, read, or study. The space has multimedia capabilities and a projector screen. Many of the student organizations related to sexual and gender identity use the space for their regular meetings. The room may be reserved for small meetings, study groups, and other activities. Please call (858) 822-3493 to ask about availability and reservations.
