CALENDAR ITEM:

An exciting daylong symposium addressing the broad architectural issues that face cities today will be sponsored May 5 by the University of California, San Diego School of Architecture, in Mandeville Auditorium on the UCSD campus. Four nationally acclaimed architectural leaders will be joined by eight local experts in addressing such topics as public spaces, pedestrian linkages, housing and landmark architecture. Hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. The symposium is free, but advance tickets are required. For information about reservations call 534-3455.
