

Symposium on "Vienna Architecture: The State of the Art", Feb. 19 at Warren Lecture Hall

February 17, 1993

MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: Symposium on "Vienna Architecture: The State of the Art."

DATE/TIME: 5-8 p.m. Friday, February 19.

LOCATION: Warren Lecture Hall, Room 2005, University of California, San Diego.

BACKGROUND: Dr. Hannes Swoboda, director of City Planning, Vienna; Silja Tillner, urban designer, Los Angeles, and Helmut Richter, architect, Vienna, will discuss new architectural developments in the City of Vienna.

The symposium is being held in conjunction with an international traveling exhibition produced by the City of Vienna on view at the UCSD School of Architecture through Feb. 23. The exhibition illustrates Vienna's urban renaissance and documents recent work of its most compelling contemporary architects.

The exhibition at the School of Architecture, 409 University Center, is free and open to the public; a $5 donation to the symposium is suggested.

CONTACT: Pat JaCoby, University Communications, 534-7404 or Fran Hegeler, School of Architecture, 534-0639.

(February 17, 1993)