

Box 8
57-8

CONSEJO SUPERIOR DE LA EMPRESA PRIVADA

Aptdo. 5430, Tels.: 23510, 27130, 27136, 27149, 27926. Managua, Nicaragua, C. A.

COSEP

The facade of the old Cathedral in Managua. Today in ruins and without parishioners. In front, two symbols of profound significance: Sandino below; the Marx-Engels-Lenin trilogy above. What is the meaning of all this? Sandinismo towards Marxism? Is God being supplanted by a new revolutionary cult? According to a France-Press report, Archbishop Obando-Bravo has warned that the revolution must not be transformed into an unquestionable idol. LA PRENSA, Managua, Nicaragua, June 21, 1981, front page.