MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: Seniors in the Urban Studies and Planning program at the University of California, San Diego, will display their research projects--the result of six months working in San Diego governmental, health care, environmental and educational facilities-- during an open house exhibit.

DATE/TIME: 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., Thursday, March 14

LOCATION: Price Center, Ballroom A, UCSD

BACKGROUND: Sixty-five students in the Urban Studies and Planning program spent 100 hours each in working for such San Diego entities as St. Vincent de Paul, the Mayor's Office, Environmental Planning, and other educational, environmental and health care agencies, examining problems and suggesting solutions in picture and text research exhibits.

CONTACT: Instructor Keith Pezzoli will be available in the exhibit area from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.
